NAZIS MAY TAKE AWARD AS AFFRONT

Foreign Minister, German War Veteran Honored By Committee

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—(UP)—Secretary of Interior Harold I. Ickes today said he believed private vessels chartered by the government to transport food to Alaska "will be loaded and on their way in ten days." Ickes said representatives of the Alaska railroad had obtained crews for the ships.

OSLO, Norway, Nov. 24.—(UP)—Carl Von Ossietzky, German pacifist, and Dr. Carlos Saavedra Lamas, Argentine foreign minister, were awarded the Nobel peace prizes for 1935 and 1936 today.

Ossietzky, enfeebled, white-haired, broken in health, was released a few weeks ago from a German Nazi concentration camp. He is under treatment at a Berlin hospital after three years as a Nazi prisoner.

Dr. Saavedra Lamas has won distinction in Europe and on the American continents for his work for peace. Author of the Saavedra Lamas peace pact, a prime worker in the effort to end the bloody Bolivian-Paraguayan war in the Gran Chaco territory, he is to be a leading figure at the Buenos Aires peace conference toward which President Roosevelt is sailing.

Criticism of Policies
The award to Ossietzky was interpreted widely as likely to be regarded by Nazi Germany as a direct affront and a frank criticism of its policies.

This was believed to be responsible for the recent decision of Halvdan Koht, Norwegian foreign minister, and Johann Mowinkel, former Norwegian premier and foreign minister resigning from the Nobel peace committee.

Operated Clipping Bureau
Ossietzky, 47, and a war veteran. After the World war he made a scant living by maintaining a small newspaper clipping bureau.

His wife, Audrey, an Englishwoman, taught languages.

UNIONS AGREE TO NEGOTIATE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—(UP)—Leaders of maritime strikers today admitted "the situation has changed."

The unionists agreed to resume negotiations with the Shipowners' association of the Pacific and laid down their terms for operating government - contracted ships to take food supplies to Alaska ports.

The union spokesmen said they would sail any vessel providing the government would meet pay and other demands the workers made on shipowners before the strike. Details of a proposed plan to ship food supplies to slide-stricken Nevada were not revealed.

One hundred seven ship passengers left San Francisco, Los Angeles and other California ports by rail and auto for Ensenada, Mexico, where they will board the Santa Elena for New York. The strike is not effective in Mexican ports.

WORKERS, LAUNDRY MEN IN AGREEMENT

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—(UP)—Laundry workers here today voted to accept a peace plan proposed by 38 laundries and ended the strike threat of 2000 employees.

The agreement, effective November 30, provides for a 44-hour week for six months, with 44 hours' pay for a 40-hour week thereafter and a guarantee of a minimum of 33-hours per week.

The minimum wage scale was set at $17.60 for lower bracket workers and at $23.38 in the higher divisions. Time and a half for overtime was granted with full holidays on Labor Day and Christmas.

Time and a half was granted for work on other legal holidays.

Other concessions provided preferential hiring, union business agent privileges, and a 50c guarantee if called to work but not employed.

RECALL SOUGHT

Recall of John F. Dore, mayor of Seattle, is sought in a petition filed with the city comptroller by the Citizens' Recall committee. Numerous violations of his oath of office are charged by the Washington city group.

LETTUCE MEN GUARD TRUCKS

LODI, Cal., Nov. 24.—(UP)—Heavily guarded trucks were placed in service by celery plant officials today as they announced operations "as usual" despite a strike of approximately 1500 celery workers affiliated with the Agricultural Workers' union.

Plant officials said 12 trucks, all manned by guards, would be used to transport celery from the fields and a plant at Terminus, where deputies are guarding packing houses and workmen are barricading the highway leading to the sheds.

The barricades were placed at points four miles east of the packing center.

The strike was called just as the sheds entered full-time operations. Most of the strikers are Filipinos. The dispute is over higher wages and shorter hours.

The workers' demands were rejected by the employers.

Second Debut Of Singer Tonight

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—(UP)—On the eve of her debut tonight in this city which 20 years ago gave her an ovation resembling a stampede, Amelia Galli-Curci was confident she was beginning a second and even more brilliant career than the one she began with "Rigoletto" in 1916.

In her first performance since a goitre operation in August, 1935 which changed her voice from a coloratura to lyric, the Italian-Spanish soprano will sing the role of Mimì in "La Bohème."

With a new freedom of voice in the lyric roles the prima donna expects to win new glories and new friends "with a simple outpouring of emotion which was never possible in coloratura roles."

RUBY KEELER ILL

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 24.—(UP)—Ruby Keeler, actress wife of Al Jolson, appeared at her studio today to finish up the last few scenes on a motion picture despite an appendicitis attack. It was considered likely that she would undergo an operation later.

Opponent Is Wounded By Dr. Sargis

BUDAPEST, Nov. 24.—(UP)—Dr. Franz Sargis, defending his honor and that of his wife against charges that he married for money, fought two duels against his traducers today, wounding one.

The first duel with pistols was against Szandor Cowac, an official in the bank of which Mrs. Sargis' wealthy grandfather is managing director. Cowac was wounded in the hand. The duel was at 15 paces.

Fire At 20 Paces

In the second, both duellists missed. It was fought between Sargis and Aladar Hosmeti, an official of the same bank. This one was fought at 20 paces, because Hosmeti was considered slightly less insulting than Cowac, who was rated by Sargis as his public enemy No. 1.

The duels were fought in a small meadow near a wood at Auwinkel, a mile and a half from Budapest.

Honor Satisfied

There was only one exchange of shots in each duel. In case of a miss, honor was considered satisfied.

The duellists arrived in separate automobiles by devious routes from Budapest, to avoid police. A United Press correspondent accompanied Sargis.

Sargis arrived carrying duelling pistols. Because of a last minute change in plans for the site of the battle, only 10 persons were present, and a projected goulash feast of gargantuan proportions for the gallery was not held.

As soon as the duels were over, Sargis hurried home, where his wife, who is expecting a baby, awaited him, pale with anxiety. She met him half-way down the stairs and kissed him, crying, "I am so happy."

More Duels Planned

Sargis, his fire-eating ambition still unsatisfied, said to the United Press:

"Now we will have duels with words without delay." He was referring to other traducers he has challenged, originally numbering 13 in all. Today's duels were to have been fought with heavy military sabers, but a change to pistols was made at the last moment.

PAYROLLS FOR YEAR IN GAIN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—(UP)—Factory payrolls zoomed upward 6.6 per cent during the 1936 fiscal year in their greatest advance in six years, Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins announced today.

As industry speeded its drive to re-employ jobless workers, Miss Perkins disclosed that weekly paychecks in October averaged $130,745,000 in the nation's factories—the highest total since June, 1930.

Monthly payrolls increased from September to October in every geographical sector. The east north central states led others with a 10.4 per cent rise during the four-week period.

At the same time, more workers were employed in all sections except the Pacific coast, where employment fell 3.7 per cent from September.

Miss Perkins reported that factory employment had attained 96.5 per cent of the 1923-1925 average considered "normal" by the bureau of labor statistics. Payrolls are at 88.9 per cent of this figure.

SECURITY BOARD TO OPEN OFFICES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—(UP)—Swinging into its drive to place workers under a federal old age pension system, the Social Security board today ordered establishment of 51 new field offices between now and December 15.

The new offices, making 120 in all throughout the country, will serve, officials said, "to facilitate the board's relations with the men and women for whom old age benefits will begin to accrue next January 1."

Offices will include: Butte, Mont.; Tacoma, Wash.; and Los Angeles, Calif.

INFLUENCE OF FEAR IS TOLD

BOSTON, Nov. 24.—(UP)—William Cardinal O'Connell, dean of the Catholic hierarchy in America, sees fear as the dominating influence in world affairs today.

"And what is the cause of fear?" he said. "Lost confidence in God, loss of faith and the attachment of too much importance to the material things of life. They say, 'It can't happen here.' Spain says, 'It has happened in Spain.' Having thrown away all the safeguards of a moral life, finally they throw religion itself out the window."

The Cardinal received the press last night in anticipation of the 25th anniversary of his elevation to the sacred college Friday and his 78th birthday, December 8.

ASKS $5000 FOR TERM IN PRISON

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 24.—(UP)—William O. Dulin, who served three years in San Quentin prison for a gang murder of which he was innocent, today asked $5000 damages as compensation for the injustice.

The former street car motorman, who was released on a pardon last August, filed a claim before the state board of control, contending he was entitled to damages from the state.

Dulin was sent to prison after being convicted of a charge of slaying Mickey Erno, prizefighter, in May, 1932. When new evidence subsequently proved him innocent, Gov. Frank P. Merriam pardoned him. Froy Hayes, who was convicted with Dulin, is serving a life sentence.

SEEK PEACE IN C. I. O. DISPUTE

TAMPA, Fla., Nov. 24.—(UP)—The American Federation of Labor made a new peace gesture to John L. Lewis today after its 56th annual convention formally suspended 10 international unions in the rebel leader's defiant Committee for Industrial Organization.

Expulsion Possible

But bulwarking the gesture, the convention clothed the federation executive council with power to call a special convention in event peace maneuvers fail and drastic action—presumably expulsion—becomes necessary.

President William Green, most ardent advocate of the convention's 21,579 to 2,043 vote for suspension of a million federation members, announced after the gavel fell on a tense midnight session, that the A. F. of L. leadership would renew at once its efforts toward negotiations to end the gravest split in 50 years of labor solidarity.

C. I. O. To Meet Soon

Green refused to accept the opinion of many veteran labor chiefs including Charles P. Howard head of the Typographers, that the suspension vote meant Lewis immediately would force a permanent, rival labor organization and that, if the C. I. O. wins its battle to unionize the steel industry, the split in labor ranks will be too wide to heal. It was reported the C. I. O. leaders would meet next week-end to make plans.

FUNDS FROM WPA WILL BE SOUGHT SOON

Groundwork Laid for New Santa Ana Program at Conference Today

Groundwork for one of the most extensive civic beautification projects in history of Santa Ana was laid this morning at the second session of a committee of civic-minded women in city hall.

Poppy Week Planned

The many ramifications of the plan will involve among other things the legality of planting poppies on vacant lots without permission of the property owners, many of whom reside outside the city, the possible founding of a "Poppy week" for Santa Ana and a quest for aid from the WPA for institution of a permanent project including the planting of shrubbery and permanent flowers.

Mrs. Ora K. Heine, member of the city planning commission, was named head of a committee that will outline a general plan of planting poppies on lots of main arteries of tourist traffic, form an estimate of the entire cost of the plan, and perfect a manner of supervision from start to finish.

Dale Griggs, city park superintendent, will be a member of the committee, and at least two others will be named by Mrs. Heine.

Meet Next Tuesday

The committee, named by Mrs. Robert G. Tuthill, who presided at the meeting as permanent chairman, will report at the next meeting, to be held at 10 a. m., next Tuesday in city hall.

STRIKERS LEAVE FACTORY

Eleven hundred employees of the Bendix Products corporation of South Bend, Ind., who went on strike last week in a dispute with the management over unionization of the workers, finally consented to leave the factory yesterday, paving the way for resumption of conferences between employers and employees. Women workers snuggled together under their blankets to keep warm, as seen in the top photo. In the bottom picture, men strikers in the building are shown receiving cigars and sandwiches from fellow strikers unable to enter the building.

FIND 6 BODIES IN JUNEAU MUD

JUNEAU, Alaska, Nov. 24.—(UP)—Veteran Alaska-Juneau mine workers, digging swiftly and efficiently through oozing landslide debris, early today recovered six more bodies from their mud tomb, bringing the official death count to seven and revealing the terrible suddenness with which the avalanche killed its sleeping victims.

The identified dead now are Mr. and Mrs. James Hoag; Mrs. George Lee, Forrest Beaudin, 12; Mrs. Gust Erickson.

A man and a woman, unidentified but believed to be husband and wife, were found and placed in the city's only morgue, rapidly becoming over-taxed.

Speaking only in hushed monotones as they began their grim task late last night, the miners lacked the huge pile of mud, rock and trees from the top rather than the sides.

Officials here estimated there still were at least 10 persons missing in the mass of rain-soaked debris which snapped power lines and virtually cut the city in two, destroying two apartment houses and small homes.

Former Justice Agent Gets Fine

SAN JOSE, Cal., Nov. 24.—(UP)—Melvin Purvis, the former ace department of justice agent, who ensnared many criminals in the coils of the law, found himself on the receiving end of police action recently, it was revealed today.

He was arrested here by Traffic Officer Anthony Russo on charges of driving 45 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone. When the case came up, he was fined $15 by Judge Percy O'Connor and the fine was paid through the California State Automobile association.

GERMANY AND ITALY ACCUSED

BULLETIN
GIBRALTAR, Nov. 24.—(UP)—The Spanish Nationalist radio station at Seville broadcast today that the Nationalist cruiser Canarias sank a foreign merchantman of unknown nationality off Barcelona.

VALENCIA, Spain, Nov. 24.—(UP)—The Spanish Loyalist government, in a carefully phrased declaration to the world, voiced plainly today its suspicion that a German warship torpedoed the Loyalist cruiser Miguel de Cervantes in Cartagena harbor Sunday.

Both Italy and Germany were charged directly with permitting their warships to act in co-operation with the Nationalist war fleet.

But as regards Germany the government outlined a chain of statements that left no possible doubt of its intention to intimate that it was a German torpedo which damaged the cruiser. Links in the chain were:

1—The Nationalists have not a single submarine of their own—that is a submarine belonging to Spain.

2—Pieces of a torpedo which, the statement said, damaged the Miguel de Cervantes, were discovered and proved to be neither of Spanish nor Italian manufacture.

Destroyer in Port

3—After the attack on the Miguel de Cervantes, a German destroyer, which was visible while the ship was being attacked, approached the entrance to Cartagena port and, "after examining the effects of the aggression," went away.

SEEK CLUES IN CHICAGO SLAYING

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—(UP)—Investigators delved today into recent activities of Michael J. Galvin, power in Chicago labor union wars for a generation, to find a clue to the men who shot him to death last night in accepted gangland style.

Galvin, 55 president of the out-lawed Chicago Chauffeurs' and Truck Drivers' union, was shot down four blocks from Chicago's busy Loop just before midnight. Struck by more than three dozen slugs, he was dead when he reached a hospital.

Police had only a meagre description of the four men who rode up behind him in an unlicensed car and fired four shotgun blasts into his body. They believed the men may have been connected with Galvin's efforts to organize chauffeurs and truck drivers in defiance of the accepted unit of the American Federation of Labor.

WEST TELLS OBJECTIONS TO MEASURE

Drastic Ordinance Given Board Approval After Note From Jurors

Over the vigorous protests of Supervisor N. E. West, the county supervisors today adopted a so-called "anti-picketing" ordinance presented to them by the county grand jury, following that body's investigation of recent citrus strike incidents in the county, late yesterday.

Accompanied By Note

The ordinance, more stringent in its provisions than the existing ordinance which it superseded, was laid before the supervisors by Dr. L. C. Deming, member of the grand jury, and the document was accompanied by a note from the grand jury officers, Foreman Carl G. Mock and Secretary Edwin Backs, stating that the grand jury "unanimously recommends that our board of supervisors adopt the attached anti-picketing ordinance."

West Voices Objections

Supervisor LeRoy Lyon, of Placencia, moved adoption of the ordinance, after a preliminary discussion, during which Supervisor West objected to both the phrasing and effect of the ordinance. When the motion for adoption finally was made, Supervisor Willard Smith, of

NEW DRILLING PLAN REVEALED

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Nov. 24.—(UP)—A new scheme for permitting one company to develop state-owned tideland oil pools was revealed here today in a report that petitions were being circulated to qualify an initiative measure for submission to the legislature.

Draws Opposition

The proposal, which drew the immediate opposition of Gov. Frank P. Merriam, would—if approved—give the Independent Producers, Inc., a private corporation, the exclusive right to slant drill for oil in state-owned tideland pools on a royalty basis of 40 per cent to the state and 60 per cent to the company after payment of all development, operating and maintenance costs.

In order to qualify for legislative consideration, the initiative measure must obtain 114,487 signatures of registered voters and be filed with the secretary of state 10 days before the legislature convenes of January 4. If that happens and the legislature does not pass it without change, the initiative must be submitted to the voters at the next regular election.

20-Year Contract

While nothing had been filed with state election officials, a printout copy of the proposed initiative was received at the capitol. It would provide for creation of a state mineral commission and direct it to execute a 20-year operating contract with Independent Producers, Inc., to slant drill from upland locations on tideland pools. Drilling on the tidelands would be prohibited. Half of the revenue received by the state would be used to develop parks and beaches.

APPROVAL FOR PARK PROJECT RECEIVED HERE

Presidential approval has been given the City of Santa Ana's $50,000 Santiago Creek Park Improvement project, topping a list of projects, valued at $98,200, approved by President Roosevelt for Orange county, according to Dan Mulhern, manager of WPA in Orange county.

Other projects given the presidential approval include Newport Beach's street program of constructing sidewalks and curbs and installing ornamental lights along five blocks of Ocean avenue; general repairs for streets in Placentia; remodeling work on the Anaheim Grammar school; completion of the Washington school in La Habra and work on the San Clemente golf course.

The federal government will provide $43,101 for the Santiago Creek project with the city supplying an additional $7594. This money will be used to employ 89 men for seven months.

Work to be completed under the project includes: installation of a water system, ornamental lights, construction of a recreational building, tennis courts, picnic tables, stoves and benches, installation of sink stands, remodeling existing rest rooms, construction of community fireplace centers, walks and trails, installation of drinking fountains, landscaping the entire area, preparation of the playground and installation of playground equipment.

The Newport Beach paving project will cost a total of $12,221 with the federal government providing $9086 and the city $3135. It is planned to remove the old board walk along Ocean avenue, between Fifteenth and Twentieth streets, replacing it with cement sidewalks and curbs and installing ornamental lights in the same area. It is estimated that the project will provide three months work for 28 men.

General repairs of all streets in Placentia will cost a total of $7775, according to the project just approved. The government's share of the cost will amount to $5972 and the City of Placentia will contribute $1803.

The Anaheim grammar school project, to cost $2335, will include the replacement of brick veneer walls of the school with stucco. The federal appropriation will amount to $2064 and the school district will contribute $471. The La Habra school project is a continuation of the original project and will result in the finishing of the interior and exterior of the Washington school building at a total cost of $3627. The federal appropriation will be $3257 with the school district adding $370.

The San Clemente golf course project will cost a total of $21,047, for which federal funds have already been appropriated to the extent of $17,209. The sponsoring city will contribute $3838.

CASH PRIZES IN CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL OFFERED BY C. C.

Cash prizes awarded in the annual Christmas Festival window display will be more than trebled this year according to a decision reached this morning by members of the Merchants' Division of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the festival.

In past years cash awards, going to the men who actually decorated the winning windows, totaled $15 with a first prize of $10 and a $5 second award. This year there will be nine cash prizes totaling $50. This year the first prize will be $15, second prize $10, third, $7.50, fourth $5 and five prizes of $2.50 each.

Window display competition this year will have an added importance for the various stores to enter the contest. For the past two years the sweepstakes cup has been won by Swanberger's. Should that store win the cup again this year it will pass into the permanent possession of this year's winner.

All windows entered in competition this year will be judged on four points: sales appeal, Christmas motif, originality and beauty. Each factor of the judging will carry 25 points.

The committee in charge of the window display competition will be headed by Walter Swanberger. Other members of the committee named today are Mrs. Alice Petersen, of Petersen's Shoe store; Carl Stein, of Vandermast's; George Jones, manager of Penny's store.

The following members of the judging committee also were named: Robert McKnight, Santa Ana; Al Jones, Anaheim and Mrs. Alice Petersen, Santa Ana.

With the festival scheduled to open at 7 o'clock on the night of December 5, the judging committee will view all windows entered in the competition at 8 o'clock the night of December 4 in order that winning windows can be designated at the start of the celebration.

Swanberger, speaking for the rules committee, said that all awards will be based on one or more windows and that merchants may enter either one window or more in the competition. The contest committee must, however, be notified of the number of windows and which windows are in the contest, before judging starts.

Phil M. Brown, general chairman in charge of arrangements for the festival, said the celebration will be held on a grander scale than has ever before been attempted by the Merchants' division of the chamber of commerce. There will be twice as many decorative lights, better evergreens used in the decoration and a larger area of the business district included in the festive area.

Employment of Albert Launer, of Fullerton, and B. Z. McKinney, of Santa Ana, as special counsel for the Orange County Flood Control District was approved by the board of supervisors today, and the two attorneys will have charge of flood bond proceedings, and condemnation proceedings afterward, if the bond issue is approved by the voters.

Desiring to "hold down" expense as much as possible, the board and attorneys agreed upon a fee of $30 per day or $7.50 per hour, for each attorney, for time actually employed; with an understanding that if litigation develops in the acquisition of right-of-ways for the flood control works, additional court fees will be allowed.

The board, it was said, decided upon the retention of two attorneys instead of one, in order to have additional legal opinion on bond proceedings, and to expedite the work, particularly of land negotiations, when and if the bond issue carries. It was pointed out that the expense should be little if any greater, as a certain amount of legal work must be done, and two will complete it more quickly than one.

LOCAL TEACHER IN VETERANS HOSPITAL

Charles Tibbetts, teacher of mechanical arts in the shop department of the Santa Ana high school for the past 15 years, is in the veterans' hospital at Santee where he has been several days ago. He had been in ill health for some time but was confined to his home for more than a week before his removal to the hospital.

A veteran of the Spanish-American war where he served as a member of Co. K, Iowa volunteers, Tibbetts came to Santa Ana 15 years ago and joined the high school faculty. He is a member of Calumet camp, United Spanish War Veterans and has been active in affairs of the organization since coming to this city.

Granted a leave of absence by the board of education he is expected to return to his classes within a few weeks, according to members of his family.

SANTA PAULAN TO HEAD STAFF IN LABORATORY

L. T. Sharp, of Santa Paula, has joined the staff of the Association Laboratory at Anaheim and will manage and direct the laboratory, according to an announcement today.

Announcement of Sharp's connection with the laboratory was made by Mrs. Dean D. Waynick who has been heading the organization since the death of her husband Dr. Dean Waynick, a few months ago in an automobile crash. Other than the addition of Sharp there will be no further changes in the laboratory personnel, she said.

Sharp, who is owner of both citrus and walnut groves major in soils at University of California. Following graduation he was employed by the university as assistant in soils, and later served as instructor in agronomy at the University of Nevada. Returning to the University of California as assistant professor of soil chemistry and bacteriology, serving for six years in this capacity.

Resigning from university service in 1919 Sharp engaged in ranching, purchasing and operating lemon, orange and walnut properties which he still owns. Since 1925 he had been connected with the Santa Paula Citrus Fruit association as managing chemist for that organization's laboratory.

ONTIAC SETS RECORD WITH MOBILGAS OIL

Practically the limit of the gas and phasants, H. H. Low, of the Santa Ana branch manager of the general Petroleum corporation, said that the record for a low cost trip, recently returned from a 10-mile weekend hunting trip to Grizzly, California, one of the principal features of which was the king of a remarkable economy. The record was set by a Pontiac car, averaging almost 18 miles to gallon of Mobilgas and consuming less than a quart of Mobil for the entire 1100 miles," says Low, "was the record for the trip, which was made at an average speed of 45 miles an hour, water whatever was added to cooling system. The Pontiac which registered this low consumption of gasoline and oil on long fast trip, has already been given upwards of $8,000 miles. A particular trip was made from Santa Ana up through Northern California on highway 99 E to a point 9 miles northeast of Grizzly, where the record was set. Highlights of the trip, according to Mr. Low, was a visit to the home of the famous Grizzly bear, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Barker, and mother of Sam Barker, who are now residents of Santa Ana. The senior Barker came west in a prairie schooner 55 years ago and began farming this tract, consisting of 1800 acres. The place operated today by Marvin Casper, who royally entertained the party.

NEWS SERVICES BELITTLED IN FORUM SPEECH

Assertions that the American press, as well as foreign news services, could not be relied upon consistently for news stories devoid of propaganda, marked the discussion Monday night at the federal forum meeting of "newspapers important but not only source of news," and "newspapers lose influence," by Dr. John Brown Nasson, forum leader.

After warning the reading public of what he said was danger of strong belief in news stories from various parts of the United States and abroad, Dr. Nasson urged his audience to keep faith with only those newspapers whose writers were known to be above reproach.

The usual questions and answers featured the latter part of the meeting.

Many persons took advantage of the branch library privileges, accorded by Miss Ethel Walker, head of the Santa Ana library, in connection with the forum meetings. Books pertinent to the subject discussed may be obtained with or without cards following the sessions.

Who's Boss in Your House?

Husbands, Wives To Discuss Burning Question

"The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here—"

By HOMER GANFIELD
Hollywood, Nov. 24—

TONS OF DYNAMITE ARE packed away in this small, verbal package—Who's the boss, husband or wife?

Regardless of the risk run in teasing a powder keg, the question with its delicate and multitudinous angles will be discussed during the program, "Husbands and Wives," (KECA, 6:30).

Willing to die for their cause if need be, several husbands and wives who are the bosses in their own homes—or think they are—will be on hand to tell their story, and do a bit of bragging.

Sedley Brown and Allie Lowe Miles, who usually enjoy the broadcast through its thirty minutes, will referee.

Lots of laughs, I'd say.

MORE THAN ONCE I'VE BEEN asked this question—"What's become of Marion Mansfield?" For those still interested—and you should be—I suggest they dial Ken Niles—"Gloom Chasers" (KFWB, 8).

Marion won many fans with her easy-going centrality during a nightly KNX series a few years ago. With Bill Hatch's strings, remember? Since then an engagement contract and marriage have occupied her time. Now she's braving the Kilocycles again with a hope deep down in her heart that you haven't forgotten.

Speaking of Bill Hatch reminds me to make this prediction—When KNX goes completely Columbia the first of the year, watch for Bill to match it stride for stride. For from that date on when he calls the role in his hand something like eighteen men will answer. Eighteen instruments will be like a symphony compared to the combination he's been forced to use. And Bill won't waste their music, either.

ANOTHER FAVORITE BOBS

up—Conrad Thibault. His appearance last week on Fred Astaire's hour was a bright interlude in an otherwise dull program. We understand that Thibault is now a regular member of the cast.

A change in choruses may also benefit this show. Leon Rosebrook will be responsible for the vocal interludes tonight. (KFI, 6:30)

Mahatma Gandhi was once a veritable fashion-plate . . . faultless evening clothes, top hat and cane! The world's greatest mural painting was for years on the wall of a stable! Unless you have a certain combination of letters in your name, history shows your chance of becoming president are poor! Listen for this trio of dramatized oddities on Strange As It Seems. J. C. FACULTY ELECTS 24 TO HONOR GROUP

Twenty-four students at Santa Ana Junior college were notified recently of their election to the highest scholastic honor group on the campus, Phi Theta Kappa. According to Lella B. Watson, adviser, election was for attaining an average of 2.5 grade points per unit of work for one semester or for an average of two points for two consecutive semesters.

Those elected by the college faculty are: Harvey Baker, Edgar Barnes, Hans Bergseter, Gordon Bishop, Sherwood Brady, William Brady, Stephen Bruff, Richard Connell, Charles Dunston, Eunice Filer, Robert Forey, Muryl Hallman, Margaret Hess, Gordon Lockett, Neil McDaniel, Betty Jane Moore, Marian Pletke, Doris Quinn, Henrietta Rurup, Dorothy Stadel, Elbert Stewart, John Wallace, and Stanley Wilson.

Granted the first chapter in California, the Alpha Beta chapter of Phi Theta Kappa was organized at Santa Ana Junior college in November 1929. The local society resembles the Phi Beta Kappa of four year institutions. To encourage good fellowship, and scholastic achievement among fellow students are the purposes of this organization.

From the Greek words phronimon, theumos, and katharotes, meaning truth, wisdom and purity, the ideals of society are drawn. There are no social functions other than the formal initiations, one held each semester, at which time newly elected members receive admittance. A banquet accompanies the initiation. Officers will be elected at the first meeting early in December.

TEAM OF LOCAL ADVENTURERS NOW NATIONAL

Popularity of Dana and Virginia Bishop Lamb, Orange county's well-known sea voyagers and narrators of bold adventures indulged in by themselves, extended across America today, as the couple began making contacts with nationally-known magazines, national societies and a national radio broadcasting system.

Today the Lambs, who recently returned from a three-year cruise of Pacific waters in an open boat, were to go to Los Angeles to meet officials of the National Broadcasting company, at the company's request, regarding a broadcast of their experiences, either as an interview with a radio announcer, or through dramatization of those experiences.

At the same time, requests have been forwarded to the Lambs from the National Geographic and the Liberty magazines, asking for articles of their adventures. It was learned. Another request for an appointment was sent to the couple by the Pacific Geographic society, with headquarters in Los Angeles, who want an article or talk upon the Lamb trip.

For the second Sunday afternoon in succession, Lamb spoke last Sunday at Charles W. Bowers Memorial museum to a group of 225 persons, and again, it was necessary to turn away 125 persons because of lack of auditorium capacity. Lamb indicated his pleasure in the interest shown by those who attended and would be happy to talk again "at some later time." The week before some 200 persons were turned away due to the limited capacity of the auditorium. The last Sunday, he presented a resume of the entire voyage, which landed them on Cocos Island, off the west coast of South America, and spoke upon the subject of mental and physical requirements made for the sea voyage. The voyage had been a dream of the couple since days when they attended school together and were childhood sweethearts, Lamb explained, and completion of the voyage was consummation of their dream. He also related the adventure of Cocos Island, where he fell ill with appendicitis and rigged up a framework upon which he put the word, "Help," later being rescued, with Mrs. Lamb, by a coast guard cutter.

BICYCLE RIDER KILLED BY CAR IS IDENTIFIED

The unidentified bicycle rider who died at county hospital after an accident on Coast highway near Serra Nov. 9, when he was struck down by a car operated by Dewey Killen, Long Beach Marine, today was identified through efforts of Coroner Earl Abbey and Deputy Sheriff Herman Zabel of the sheriff's identification bureau, as that of Lee I. Campbell, 30, native of Charleston, West Virginia, and son of Mrs. Laura Christian, Rondoy, West Virginia.

Campbell was identified through fingerprint records of the army at Washington, D. C. He has an honorable discharge from the army, having served in peace times. He was on a bicycle tour of America at time of his death, according to belief of the coroner who is contacting Mrs. Christian today regarding disposal of the body. The body is at Divil funeral chapel, San Clemente, where an inquest was conducted this morning.

In spite of the fact Killen is charged with negligent homicide in connection with Campbell's death, after he was arrested first on a drunk driving charge, a coroner's jury today held Campbell responsible for the accident which caused his death and exonerated Killen from blame. The charge against Killen may be reduced to drunk driving, it was believed. The jury held Campbell responsible, stating he operated his bicycle after dark without light on front and without a reflector on rear, Campbell's last known address was 1912 McClung street, Charleston, West Virginia.

Jimmy Fidler in HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 24.—Idle chatter, Clark Gable and Janet Gaynor are better looking today than when they were extras together twelve years ago. Nutschell description of the Marx Brothers: Maniacs. Alice White is telling folks her diary makes Mary Astor's read like a Mother Goose book. Peas from the same pod: Freddie Bartholomew and Billy Mauch.

Ned Sparks (my favorite comedian) has been in extreme ill health for years. Few more interesting conversationalists than Eric Blore or Arthur Treacher.

Three words ("I am sorry") cost Hollywood $1,000,000 annually; actors use them to express regret after mugging scenes. Candidate for most enticing neck: Madeleine Carroll. Many angry mamas at Santa Monica since Jean Harlow taught little girls there to use raw eggs to hold mud pies together. Scene stealer: Mischa Auer. Baba Hardy reminds me of Old King Cole, the merry old soul. A few minutes under the sun and Katharine Hepburn is a freckle patch.

Charlie Chaplin is least conscious of flashlights; any old angle photographers shoot from is okay with Charles. Cleverest picture title of the month: "Melody for Note showed beneath my door: "I saw Greta Garbo in a drug store on Sunset Boulevard. She was dressed in a badly fitting, tweed suit, floppy brown hat and wore dark glasses. She didn't even cause a ripple among customers or clerks." Maybe the writer meant to say that Garbo's illness shows plainly.

Perhaps no film executive was held in greater respect than the late Irving Thalberg. Shortly before his death he signed Francine Larrimore to a contract, intending to build her to stardom. Soon after Irving passed away, MGM released Miss Larrimore. That very afternoon she was snapped up on a new deal by producer B. P. Schulberg. "What was good for Irving Thalberg," B. P. announced, "is star material for me."

GOVERNMENT AND MARITIME STRIKE SUBJECT FOR FORUM

To be or not to be protected by your government if you are doing maritime work during the present Pacific coast shipping strike—that is the question which Atty. H. C. Head and R. J. Lewis hope to settle tonight at the Forum for Political and Economic Education in the junior college building, 917 North Main, beginning at 8 o'clock.

The subject of a debate which Head and Lewis will enter, affirmatively and negatively, respectively, is: "Resolved, That Government Officials Should Use Unlimited Resources of Their Government to Give Every Reasonable Protection to Those Who Care to Work in the Maritime Strike."

"It might seem strange to be obliged to debate whether men should be given protection to work during such a strike," Dr. M. W. Hollingsworth, program chairman, said today. "But it is evident that officials in charge of the government at present do not believe the voting majority wants them to give protection to those who want to work during such a strike, or those officials would use government resources to provide that protection. It seems apparent that the government officials want public opinion to crystallize in a manner which they can interpret," Dr. Hollingsworth continued. "Is the question one-sided after all? To many Orange county people it must seem evident that the subject does need discussion so that eventually public opinion may crystallize to the satisfaction of government officials."

Head needs no introduction to local audiences. Lewis has had much experience in labor union groups and has strong convictions regarding the debate subject. The public is invited, without charge, to attend and take part in the debate.

Henry Bassetti

THE AMBASSADOR CHEF SAYS:

"GAS COOKS BETTER AND COSTS LESS"

It isn't just a single dish that has made Henry Bassetti of the Los Angeles Ambassador famous for delicious foods. Everything has to be just right at the Ambassador.

That's one reason why this distinguished hotel uses natural gas for cooking. Nothing equals gas for roasting, baking, frying—and boiling!

Because of its speed and intensity, gas heat browns meats without loss of juices. It permits the ventilation needed to produce crisp, juicy roasts without a flat, "steamed" flavor. It gives even heat with full scale of temperatures for baking, and quick high heat, uniformly spread under the skillet, for frying. And of course natural gas brings foods to a boil very fast.

Enjoy this favored fuel of great hotels—in your own kitchen—with a new, modern gas range. The latest models are on display at gas appliance dealers' or at your gas company.

More or less dissatisfied and disgruntled over conditions at the Southern conference school, Walt Hickman is home from the University of Mississippi where he played freshman football this fall. Hickman, captain and blocking back for Santa Ana's Dons last year, says he definitely thought at Mississippi.

Coach Don Cruickshank of Fullerton high school's Indians rarely his fullback, Ray Stone, as a better prospect than John Kuhn was when Kuhn, the Trojan captain, was at Fullerton. Stone returns to the Fullerton lineup here tomorrow after missing three games because of injuries.

Watch Laguna Beach next year! The Artists led only five members of the team that swept through an undefeated season in the Minor division of the Orange league. The seniors are Captain John Chamberlain, center; Newton Jacobson, end; Lloyd Babcock, end; and Bill Murray, tackle, and "Dick" Resner, fullback.

Orange county alumni of the University of California and Stanford, and their guests, hold a joint stag dinner at the Santa Ana Country club Monday at 6:45 p. m. Pictures of the "Big Game" will be shown in slow motion, according to Johnny Lutz, the guiding spirit of the Golden Bears here. They will be preceded by a buffet dinner and followed by none-of-your-business.

WOOLEN MILLS FIVE IN DEBUT

Big-time basketball makes its debut at the Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. pavilion at 8:15 tonight when Quentin Matzen's Santa Ana Woolen Mills plays the Redondo Eagles.

This is the Santa Ana team's first game, the invaders' second. The contest promises to be a nip-and-tuck affair, as both squads hold formidable records in the past. The Woolen Mills won the Santa Ana commercial league title last year, while the Eagles were second in the A. A. U. tournament.

Santa Ana's contingent will be led by the lanky southpaw sharpshooter, Douglas Wheeler, one of the leading scorers of the circuit last winter. Bill Kolkoist will be Wheeler's running mate at forward. Fred Wiemer starts at center. Vernon Valentine and Leonard Lockhart hold down the guard positions. Russell (Rusty) Sullivan is coaching and managing the Santa Ana team.

Redondo will start Murphy and Payton at forwards; Burnie at center; McCullen and Idarte in the guard assignments.

With the entry of Wilson's Service Station, managed by Maurice (Buck) White, the Santa Ana Commercial league today had five of its necessary six teams. The other franchise goes, according to Secretary Ralph Smedley, to the quietest that first posted a forfeit fee. Several squads are in line for the spot.

Already enrolled are the Southern Counties Gas company, Scottie's Malt, Majestic Malt, the Penhall Brothers of Westminster, and Wilson's Service. The last team will include extra players for the Woolen Mills.

STENGEL TO NEWARK? Casey Stengel is rumored to be the choice of directors of the New York Yankees' International league baseball club to manage the team next season.

"I don't reckon that lightning-quick rolling is the main reason why Prince Albert is so 'specially popular. My hunch is that it's the mild, smooth flavor of it," says Tony Grimes. "They tell me that's due to the 'no-bite' process that takes the harshness out. Anyhow, we all agree that there's nothing like Prince Albert to make a man throw his hat in the air and give three rousing cheers." Try P.A. yourself. Maybe you can better Tony's rolling time. And note offer:

Roll yourself 30 swell cigarettes from Prince Albert. If you don't find them the finest, tastiest, roll-your-own cigarettes you ever smoked, return the packet with the rest of the tobacco in it to any store within a month from this date, and we will refund full purchase price, plus postage. HERVIG MAKES UNITED PRESS ALL-AMERICAN

BY GEORGE KIRKSEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
(Copyright 1936 by United Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Eleven players whose smashing, inspirational play stood out through the competition of the topsy-turvy 1936 gridiron campaign were named today on the United Press All-American football team.

These 11 players—three from the midwest, three from the far west, two from the south, two from the east and one from the southwest—were survivors of more than 250 players recommended by coaches, scribes, scouts, and players from coast to coast.

Every member has the usual requisites of a great player—speed, power, durability, poise and mechanical ability.

But over and above these qualities each man proved an inspirational player, able to rise to the heights himself and lift his teammates along with him. Every member except one met defeat. But in victory or defeat, these All-Americans never had their spirit shattered or quit under stress.

For example—Larry Kelley, Yale's dynamic end, rallying his mates from the brink of defeat to 26-23 victory over Princeton; Sammy Baugh, crippled and hobbling on one leg, pitching touchdown passes for Texas Christian; John Lauter, Notre Dame's fiery guard, lifting the Irish to triumph over Army and Northwestern; Sam Francis, holding a Nebraska team together and staying off rout against Pittsburgh; Bob Herwig, California center, rallying his mates from three straight defeats to a November power in the Far West; Ed Widseth, Minnesota's mighty tackle leading the devastating charges in the Gophers' smashing triumph; "Ace" Parker, Duke's dynamo who led the Blue Devils to eight victories, but was greatest in his team's lone defeat to Tennessee.

These seven—plus Gaynell Tinsley, Louisiana State's heroic end; Averell Danelli, Pittsburgh's powerful tackle; Maz Starevich, Washington's slashing guard; and Ed Goddard, Washington State's superb back, comprised the greatest group of inspirational players ever named by the United Press. They were champions when the chips were down, and when defeat came their way it left their individual brilliance unimpaired.

LIFTING OF INTERFERENCE RULE WOULD HELP OFFICIALS

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Most of the football officials would like to see the interference rule rescinded and the defense given carte blanche to break up a forward pass by any means short of deliberate roughing.

That would simplify things and end many borderline decisions which hinge on snap judgment. Ninety per cent of completed passes are caught in the open with no defender within fouling range, as it might not be such a hardship on the offense if the receiver were forced to make the catch at his own peril.

Throwing the ball forward always has seemed a dubious way of gaining ground to disciples of genuine football. Why make it easier for the receiver by hedging him around with legal safeguards? Even if the defense was allowed to block potential receivers, some of them would shift through and complete a reasonable percentage of passes.

Decisions involving forward passes are responsible for 70 per cent of the grievances entertained by coaches against officials," says a prominent referee.

Rule 7, section 5, article 4, reads: "During a forward pass play there shall be no interference with an eligible receiver beyond the line of scrimmage except such as may occur where two players make a simultaneous and bonafide effort to catch or bat the ball."

WANTED: MIND READER

That contingent clause causes all the trouble. It allows the official considerable latitude in construing interference. He has to guess whether the defender is making a bonafide effort to bat the ball or whether he is just trying to impede the receiver.

"One of my colleagues was blacklisted after many years of refereeing a Thanksgiving Day series because he courageously called a flagrant example of interference with a receiver," asserts the prominent referee. "By ruling a pass completed he set up the winning touchdown. It takes nerve to decide against the home team."

"You recall the rumpus that ensued in last year's Army-Notre Dame game when a questionable foul was called against a cadet defense man. That ruling virtually handed Notre Dame an undeserved tie."

"The most recent instance of pass interference was called against Hollingsworth of Dartmouth for impeding Hoxton of Yale in the end zone. A major-

WRESTLERS TURN 'GENTLEMEN'; THAT IS, ALL EXCEPT JONOTHAN

BY PAUL VISSMAN

Though the spirit of sweetness and light may settle down on the souls of all other wrestlers, "Brother" Jonathan will remain the big bad boy of matdom. The bearded terror preys the "lonely, only road" that brings hisses from the crowd and falls on fowls.

Last night at the weekly meeting of Sam Sampson's Highway Crime Club, all the wrestlers (including Leo Papiano) were overcome with the spirit of "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men" and followed the rulebook as closely as is possible for a wrestler to follow anything. After each match the victor rushed over to assist the vanquished to his feet and give him the right hand of fellowship.

Wrestling a rematch with "Brother" Jonathan, little Kiman Kudo won for the second time. He lost the first fall to Jonathan in

The third fall went to Kudo, on a foul in 7:03, when Referee Dick Rutherford stopped the match after Jonathan repeatedly refused to heed warnings against strangling.

In a one-fall-to-a-finish semi, Bob Coleman won from Floyd Hanson in 25:02 with a body press after Hanson missed a flying tackle and landed on his rump. Coleman was helped by Hanson to his feet, escorted him to his corner and shook hands.

The biggest reverse of the evening was Leo Papiano who went "gentleman" and only tried to slug Ignacio Martinez twice. Martinez won the match in 11:40 with a headlock. Papiano shook hands and left the ring wondering what ever caused him to do that.

Steve Strelch took Bob Managoff in 13:23 with a flying body scissors. It was Strelch that set the bar example resulting in all the grapplers shaking hands with their defeated adversaries. That is all of them did except bad "Brother" Jonathan.

CUB OFFICIALS AGREE TO TILT UNDER LIGHTS

Despite a story in a leading Los Angeles daily that Los Angeles Junior college will meet the Dons for the Southern California championship in Los Angeles, the game will be played in Santa Ana's Municipal Bowl Friday night, Dec. 4.

Kenneth Kerans, dean of men of Los Angeles junior and athletic commissioner of the Western conference, called D. K. Hammond, director of Santa Ana Junior college, last night by phone and the game was definitely scheduled here, it being the Eastern division's turn.

Kerans first suggested that the game be played in the Pasadena Rose Bowl but Director Hammond held out for a home contest.

Cook Fears Letdown

Meanwhile, facing the possibility of defeat at the hands of the Yellowjackets of Fullerton, Coach Bill Cook was bending every effort today to whip his champions into a proper frame of mind for the big "Donkey Day Game" in Fullerton's stadium Thursday afternoon.

Coach Cook was in anxious state yesterday for fear that the Dons might go stale, and called his players to one side for a discussion of the two all-important games that remain.

One thing that favors the Dons is last year's stunning 7-0 upset, when Fullerton was conceded any more chance than now.

Over Fullerton way Coach Roy Prieb and his men were laying plans for what they hope to be a successful ending to a rather drab football season. It looked to be a hopeless task several weeks ago, but after witnessing the Chaffey-Don struggle in a body, the Fullerton team took on new hope.

They are convinced that they have a good chance of knocking off the undefeated conference champions.

Sides Flashy in Practice

Fans who are worrying over the condition of Bill Grechner, spark-plug of the Don machine, should cease worrying if the performance of Ray Stone can be repeated a couple of times Thursday. Sides ran wild in practice yesterday.

Grechner was still in a very uncertain state today and his condition will undoubtedly keep him on the sidelines at Fullerton. This means Cook will have to turn to Blas Mercurio and Sides for threats, after the powerhouse quartet led by Johnny Lehnardt has done its dirt.

Cook said that he will stick to his word of starting the second team if it continues to show the fire in practice that was evident yesterday.

Clancy Retires as Pro Hockey Player

TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 24.—(UP)—Frank (King) Clancy, one of the greatest players in professional hockey history, today retired as a playing member of the Toronto Maple Leafs.

Clancy, oldest player in point of service in the National Hockey league, broke into professional hockey with the Ottawa Senators in 1921 while only 18.

The Toronto club bought him in 1930 from Ottawa for a reported price of $35,000 and two players.

"ACE" PARKER SO HOT THAT INTERFERENCE HINDERS HIM

By HENRY McLEMORE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

PINEHURST, N. C., Nov. 24.—One week in this little town, hard in the barbecue pork, Brunswick stew, and quail-on-toast belt, has convinced me that I must abandon my plan of picking an All-American football team with only one man in the backfield (Sam Francis of Nebraska) and pick an eleven with two ball-carriers.

This is because for seven days, and most of seven nights, at least 50,000 North Carolinians have told me that "Ace" Parker of Duke is the best back the south has produced since "Indian Joe" Guyon ran wild for a Georgia Tech team that was really a Golden Tornado. And who am I to deny the North Carolinians are right? After all, I like Frenchmen much better than I do Frenchmen, and I have never questioned the correctness of the famed 50,000 Frenchmen.

Besides, I have seen this "Ace" Parker perform. Not this year, it's true, but they do say he has improved on the form he showed last year in knocking North Carolina out of the Rose Bowl bid, when he was when I saw him. If he has, then we'll have to invent some higher form of rating than a-plus, four stars, magna cum laude, and plain red hot.

For he deserved that in 1935, if only for his kicking. I remember, that game last year, standing behind his own goal, and using a ball that was coated with mud, and shooting into a headwind, he booted one that carried 62 yards on the fly.

It was a money kick and he

Don-Pasadena '37 Game Moved to S. A.

At the request of Pasadena authorities, next year's Santa Ana-Pasadena junior college football game will be played in the Santa Ana Municipal Bowl instead of at Pasadena's Rose Bowl, as previously announced.

Coach Bill Cook concluded arrangements today after telephonic communication with Coach Bob McNeish, who informed the Santa Ana men there was no chance for a Don-Bulldog post-season engagement this year.

Santa Ana and Pasadena will open the local season on a Friday night, Sept. 17. Coach Cook said he was reserving dates on the Dons' 1937 schedule for Santa Monica jayses and the U. C. L. A. frosh. The other open night will go either to the U. S. C. freshmen or the Pomona college varsity, he said.

URGE 'HUSKERS' TO DROP PITT

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 24.—(UP)—The Daily Nebraskan, University of Nebraska's student newspaper, today recommended that Pittsburgh be dropped from the Cornhusker football schedule.

"The meeting of the Panther and Cornhusker is a battle of professionalism against amateur football," Editor Arnold Levin said. "Pittsburgh subsidizes with never a pretense at camouflage of her purpose."

"Her players received scholarships, are on a training table all year long, practice football ten months a year and indulge in a summer's hard training in a mountain camp. Sutherland scouts comb the Pennsylvania coal fields for strong young men who are capable of assimilating the technicalities of a football play."

Levin also accused the Panthers of rough play in the recent Nebraska-Pitt game. He recommended that they be replaced on the Nebraska schedule by "a team which resorts to clean, wholesome amateur practices."

Cruckshank will have his full power ready to hurt against Santa Ana, and tricky plays with plenty of running and passing with reverses and laterals thrown in, all originating from the fundamental Jones system. The Indians have made up their minds to make the season a success by "taking the Saints."

Maynard says Fullerton, a team with only four seniors in the first string, found itself at mid-season. He points out that the improving Indians, sparked by Charley Hale, rolled up 56 points as against none in their last three starts. Hale, a three-year veteran at quarter, is a shifty 155-pounder who runs, kicks and passes well. Other Fullerton stars are Floyd Rhea, 190-pound soph guard; Ray Stone, veteran fullback returning to the lineup after a month of leg trouble, and Dud Allen and John Purkies, 185-pound tackles, both juniors. Jerry Ganong, letterman guard, also is rated a fine player.

Saint Lineup Shaken Up

Coach Bill Foote shook up his Saint lineup until it was hardly recognizable last week and is starting the same gang against Fullerton. Only Halfback Len

AUTOMOTIVE NEWS

HUSHED RIDE FEATURE OF NEW PLYMOUTH

Restyled inside and out, the new 1937 Plymouth heads important innovations in safety, luxury and performance with a safety-styled body, supported by rubber pillows that give a new kind of hushed ride, O. R. Haan Santa Ana dealer said today.

The new car has an appearance of massive size, Haan declared. Improved interior design, hypoid rear axle, big airplane-type shock absorbers, studio sound proofing and oversized bodies are among the principal features Plymouth brings to the Auto Show here.

Grille design is simple, with vertical chrome bars on each side of a centerstrip in body color. Tear-drop headlamps are attached by windstream supports that blend into deep hood louvers of chrome, surmounted by a flare in body color. Steel disc wheels with large chrome hub caps complete the effect of graceful sturdiness.

Patented outrigger mountings extend beyond the frame and increase body room of all Plymouth models. Sedans have generous space for six passengers. Front seats are widened three inches, with two and one-half inches more in back.

Overall length has been increased to 194 inches, and the new seamless steel roof adds another inch of head room without increase in car height.

Every sedan has luggage room accessible from the back of the car. Built-in trunks are far more spacious and the new luggage compartments, that are really concealed space in the airflow-styled back, provide as much luggage room as former built-in units.

Throttle, choke and light switch controls disappear on special slides in the rounded base of the instrument panel, and the windshield cranks fold away. Door handles curve inward with no projecting hooks, and a padded roll across the top of front seats protects rear passengers in case of sudden stops.

The same engineers who first brought out floating power engine mountings present new method of cushioning the body on the frame, using short out-rigger brackets of special design. Soft cushions of live rubber support only the weight of the body, without the compression from body bolts that have previously interfered with full resilience.

Telescope shock absorbers, patterned after those on transport planes, are the direct-acting, low-pressure type, operating with a volume of oil four times greater than used in ordinary cam-and-lever types.

Greater stability is attained by increasing the rear tread to sixty inches. This, combined with the front axle sway eliminator bar, makes the car hug the road better while rounding curves. "Hushed" ride, with a high degree of soundproofing, is attained by five new kinds of insulation to block out rumble, hum and drumming, also seals the interior against gas, heat and cold.

Improvements in ventilation and clear-vision are achieved in windows, doors and windshields.

A hypoid rear axle, formerly limited to high-priced cars, does away with the need for a tunnel through Plymouth's low floor with chair-height seats. Ordinary hypoid construction is further improved by the use of Plymouth's special "am-ola" steel, resulting in quieter operation and longer life.

The powerful Plymouth six-cylinder engine of L-head design is retained with several improvements, including new type U-slot pistons. The 82-horsepower motor has an unusually high compression ratio of 6.7 to 1, contributing to increased power and economy.

Like every Plymouth ever built, the new model has hydraulic brakes. These are the double-action, "equal-pressure" type, preventing brake-dive on sudden stops and greatly reducing brake-lining wear.

All bodies, fenders and sheet metal parts are rust-proofed. High-color enamels, instead of lacquer, prolong the life of the exterior finish. The 1937 Plymouth line includes three "business" and eight "deluxe" models, all on 112-inch wheelbase.

AWARD CONTRACT ON NEW ARTERY

Construction of a vital and final link on Sepulveda boulevard for 3.1 miles between Lincoln boulevard and Centinela avenue will soon be under way, according to a $18,500 contract recently let. It will provide for the completion of the west arm of the Distributor highway around Los Angeles, which is comprised of Sepulveda from north San Fernando valley to the ocean.

Improvement of Sepulveda boulevard as a state route extending via a tunnel through the Santa Monica mountains has been rapid. Work is moving ahead to complete the five-mile connection south of San Fernando road at Newhall station. With the finishing of this new job between Lincoln and Centinela roads, truck and general traffic between San Joaquin valley and San Fernando valley and the Los Angeles harbor area will be provided with easier, faster and more direct access.

Having in mind relief for the traffic problem within Los Angeles and providing efficient by-pass routes for through traffic destined for points beyond the metropolis, Automobile Club of Southern California engineers proposed the Distributor highway in 1926. Later the routes forming it, including Sepulveda, were taken into the state highway system. Development of the entire circle route is rapidly nearing completion.

EMPLOYMENT IS UP IN DETROIT

DETROIT, Nov. 18. — Employment here jumped to the index figure of 103 as of October 31, compared with 99.6 on October 15 and 100.9 on October 31, 1935, the Detroit Board of Commerce reported today.

In computing its index, the board takes the average monthly employment during the years 1923 to 1925 as 100.

The peak employment this year was 109.2 on January 15, while during the spring the peak, 105.8, was reached on April 30. The statisticians believe there is a possibility a new high will be established before the end of the year.

JAIL JAYWALKERS SAY N. Y. VOTERS

If the drivers of New York city had their way—jaywalkers would spend a lot of their time in jail and a lot of their money for fines, according to information received by the National Automobile club. In a poll conducted by one of the daily newspapers, only a fraction of one per cent of the voters were opposed to fining or imprisoning jaywalkers.

Crews Working on All-Year Highway

Several crews are at work on the All-Year highway between Mari-copa and El Portal, removing slides and generally servicing the route for winter travel, reports the Stockton office of the National Automobile club. There are no delays nor inconvenience.

L. A. AUTO ASSEMBLY PLANTS PREPARE FOR RECORD YEAR OF PRODUCTION, MORE JOBS

Los Angeles' automotive industry prepared for a gala 1937 season as the twenty-fourth local show opened with a record-breaking attendance.

From every one of the five large assembly plants situated within metropolitan Los Angeles came word of full-sized production schedules for the assembly of new model motor cars. Thousands of Los Angeles working men and women, as a consequence, will draw a huge monthly pay roll from Willys-Overland Motors, Inc., Chrysler Motors of California, the Ford, Studebaker and General Motors assembly plants.

And as the new body department of the Studebaker assembly plant nears completion Studebaker sales for the Pacific coast area continued to advance far above those of last year.

Deliveries Gain
September deliveries from the plant amounted to 2288 automobiles, or an increase of 43 per cent over the best previous month of this year. According to C. K. Whitford, president of the Studebaker Pacific corporation, these figures are significant in view of the fact that Studebaker car sales during the spring months of 1936 were approximately 100 per cent greater than the same months of last year.

The new Los Angeles Studebaker body plant, now partially completed, is scheduled to be ready for full production early in December. This new division will have 142,591 square feet of floor space as compared with 99,650 square feet in the year-old assembly plant. With an increase of nearly one and one-half times the original floor space and a total of a little more than five acres of floor on one level, the plant will be prepared to meet the new production demands that the coming automotive season promises to bring.

Plant at Top Speed
While available space in the new building is being used, for the present, to store passenger car bodies, when completed the plant will be equipped to do painting, upholstering, wiring and all incidental finishing work on passenger and commercial car bodies.

From the Willys-Overland Pacific plant at Maywood came word of a full-sized production schedule for the 1937 Willys surprise automobiles. According to Frank Anding, vice president of Willys-Overland Pacific company, the plant will start production toward the end of this month and will furnish employment to more than 400 men and women.

Heavy Output
Completed in November of 1935 at a cost of more than $1,000,000, the plant occupying 398,000 square feet of space, has turned out more than 40,000 motor cars. Tentative assembly projection for 1937 models has been set for 1000 cars per month, although officials feel that this number will, in all probability, be increased before the end of the 1937 season. According to E. G. Davies, head of Willys Distributors, Inc., the new model Willys will figure prominently as a contender for national public favor.

Chrysler Motors of California also came through with word of a great schedule for 1937, according to P. W. Gaebele, plant manager. Since the construction of this plant, occupying 500,000 square feet of space, in 1935, thousands of Plymouth passenger cars and Dodge trucks have been assembled for Pacific coast area consumption.

While definite plans have not been divulged, it is expected that the production schedule will keep from 900 to 1200 men and women busy throughout the year.

Big Year Ahead
The General Motors plant, assembling Buicks, Pontiacs and Oldsmobiles, is ready for a great production year, it was announced. During the coming months the 541,000 square feet of the establishment will be the background of tremendous activity in the assembly of all three of these popular General Motors makes. Erected at an initial cost of over $2,500,000, the plant has been prominent in the advance of Los Angeles automotive industry.

Ford's plant at Long Beach cleared the decks for action and was ready to start production on the two new 1937 series of V-8 motor cars, it was learned. Hundreds of men and women are prepared to answer the call. The plant is the focal distribution point for the entire Pacific coast area and has been one of the pioneer automobile plants to come to the Southland.

RADIO PROVIDED CENTRAL LOCATION

One novelty appearing in the instrument panel layout of the new Dodge is an attractive medallion plate set into the center; the plate is readily removed when the installation of radio is specified.

As the medallion is located in the center of the instrument panel, its replacement by a radio control unit does not disturb the symmetrical balance of the layout.

Contract Awarded To Widen U. S. 101

Contract has been awarded for widening, grading and paving eight miles of U. S. 101 between Ocean-side and the Las Flores underpass, reports the San Diego office of the National Automobile club. The highway will be widened from 20 feet to 40 feet, plus eight-foot shoulders. Good detours will be provided.

DUCK HUNTING IS PLENTIFUL, REPORT

There should be ducks this year for everyone, says the outing department of the National Automobile club. Both open and commercial club shooting is very good. More ducks have appeared this year than for several years. Record shoots are being reported in all sections. The southern end of the Salton Sea is fine for open shooting because it is near the federal refuge. Commercial clubs on the north and south shores of Salton Sea report many limits.

Antelope valley reports plenty of game, as does Kern county. In the San Diego county district, Lake Hodges and Henshaw offer excellent prospects with ducks arriving daily.

ACCELERATION CAN PROVE EXPENSIVE

That acceleration of which you are so proud in the case of your new car can also be costly. It is the result, as you should know, of improved fuel induction, higher power and faster gearing—a combination which, if brought into play too rapidly, will spin the wheels without imparting forward motion to the car, states L. G. Evans, general service manager of the National Automobile club. It is wasteful of tires.

These figures are cited to show that accident prevention work has not been in vain, and urges all drivers and pedestrians to redouble their caution in their use of the streets and highways. Because of the increase in travel, the job will be harder, but it can be done. We can all help by walking and driving carefully.

DEFROSTER IS NEW OLDSMOBILE ITEM
One of the serious driving problems confronting motorists for many years has been the frosting of windshields during the winter months. Impaired vision has constituted a serious hazard during snow and sleet storms.

Oldsmobile, in 1937, offers a device which tests have proven far superior to any other developed. This device is a unit attached to the top of the hot water heater. It is operated by a centrifugal type blower which forces hot air directly on the windshield through two shell-shaped outlets.

This new defrosting system is offered as an accessory, and special provisions are made for its installation.

Start New Road in San Benito County
A power shovel is now gouging out a new road at the southern end of San Benito county. Starting at the Los Smith ranch, the new route eliminates a number of river crossings and replaces part of the road to the Hernandez district, reports the San Jose office of the National Automobile club. The work may extend over two or more seasons.

STUDEBAKER DEFLATES GAS MILEAGE CLAIMS!

STUDEBAKER cars have made magnificent records in gasoline economy. But you don't care about records achieved under special circumstances. You want to know what good, bad and indifferent drivers get under average conditions! O. K. We will tell you! Studebaker hired Facts, Inc., a business research organization, to question 500 owners of each of the ten most popular makes of automobiles (1936 models). Each driver was asked: "What gasoline mileage do you get?" The best showing was made by Studebaker.

Owners of the Dictator, with overdrive, testified to an average of 18.166 miles per gallon. Even the most popular lightest weight, lowest priced cars used more gas per mile.

Without overdrive, the Studebaker Dictator showed 17.199 miles per gallon—which is better than one of the two most popular, lowest priced cars.

STUDEBAKER'S CHALLENGE!

No other standard make of car can beat the gas mileage of the Dictator equipped with automatic overdrive in the hands of the average driver under ordinary conditions.

MOVIE STARS OFFER MENU FOR THANKSGIVING DINNER

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 24.—(UP)—Motion picture stars will desert their famous Brown Derby and Trocadero restaurants for old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinners at home, advance preparations indicate.

Following is a composite dinner selected from favorite recipes of various film stars:

Soup a la Reine

(As prepared for George Burns and Gracie Allen.)

Take a cup of butter, one cup of sifted flour, one cup of chopped onions, mix together and simmer for three minutes. Add three pints of turkey broth and cook the mixture over a slow fire 30 minutes. Strain this and add a pint of coffee cream—bring to the boiling point, add a cup of chopped mushrooms and a cup of diced chicken or turkey or, if you prefer, a cup of cooked green peas.

Claudette Colbert is leaving her entire Thanksgiving dinner preparations at her house in her mother's hands. Here is her recipe for:

Roast Turkey

Take particular care in selecting the bird. The breast bone must be flexible and the meat tender. Peel the dark skin from a pound of chestnuts, put in sauce pan with a bay leaf and a few coriander seeds. Salt the mixture, cover it with water or white stock and boil until soft, then drain. Put a pound of finely minced turkey livers with two chopped onions into sauce pan, toss over fire for a few minutes. Cut giblets into small dice, saute in butter, and add to half a loaf of bread soaked in water and drained. Add this to liver and onions.

Mix well, season to taste with salt and pepper, then add a little thyme and majoram. Then stuff turkey.

Put a few slices of bacon skin, raw carrots and onion on the bottom of the roast pan, a clove of garlic, a few crushed peppercorns and a bunch of herbs tied together with a parsley root and a bay leaf. Put turkey on top of this and roast in slow oven. Moisten with a little chicken stock and a glass of old Port wine. Baste it often during roasting and allow from 2½ to 3 hours for a 10-pound turkey in moderate oven. When done take turkey out, strain liquid into pan, skim off fat and boil up by seasoning to taste.

Broccoli (One of Carole Lombard's favorite vegetables.) Here is the recipe she will use:

Select tender broccoli, pick off the outside leaves and peel stocks. Wash in salted water and steam after sprinkling with a little salt and sugar. Cook broccoli about 15 minutes. Drain immediately and arrange on buttered platter, preferably silver. Sprinkle with grated Parmesan cheese, dot with butter and bake under salamander or put in very hot oven for a few minutes.

Frozen Pudding a la Martha Raye Take the yolks of five eggs, a cup of chopped chestnuts, a third cup of chopped glazed cherries, a pint of whipping cream, two-thirds cup of sugar, half cup of chopped walnuts and a teaspoon full of vanilla. Mix the egg yolks with the sugar, place in a double boiler and beat until smooth.

Take off the fire and cool. Add chestnuts, walnuts, cherries and vanilla. Fold in cream whipped to a standing point, place in freezer and pack with ice. Allow three or four hours for concoction to gain right consistency. Garnish each helping with whipped cream and a macaroon chestnut.

Cranberry Sauce

Here's how Gracie Allen's cook prepares it:

Take one quart of cranberries, two cups of sugar and a pint of water. Wash the cranberries, then put them on the fire with the water, but in a covered saucepan. Let simmer until each cranberry bursts open then remove cover of the saucepan, add the sugar and let them all boil 20 minutes without the cover. The cranberries should never be stirred. Place sauce in ice box for several hours until right consistency and serve as side dish with main meal.

For dessert Mae West will serve crepe Suzette.

The Roman empress, Poppaea, once bathed in the milk of 500 white asses.

68 STUDENTS NAMED IN J. C. HONOR SOCIETY

As an indication of superior scholastic achievement during the second semester of 1935-36, 68 students of Santa Ana Junior college have been elected to Alpha Gamma Sigma, California Junior College honor society, for the present semester, Lella B. AAA Pact Boosts County Walnut Income $255,600

BASE ESTIMATE ON PRODUCTION OF 1935 CROP

The AAA walnut marketing agreement means an annual income of $127,800 to $255,600 more to walnut growers of Orange county than their income before the agreement went into effect during the season of 1933 and 1934, the California Walnut Growers Association has reported to the Department of Agriculture.

This estimate is based on the 1935 walnut production in the county, which was a fairly good production, it was learned. In 1935 Orange county produced 6,390 tons of walnuts, and ranked third in production among California counties and third in the country. The Walnut Growers Association reported that the agreement meant one to two cents more per pound for California walnut growers.

The total California walnut production was about 52,000 tons in the 1935 season, and it is estimated that production will drop to about 42,000 tons this year. The association handles 80 to 85 percent of the state's walnut production.

With the exception of Washington and Oregon, which produce about five to six percent of the total, California produces practically the merchantable walnut crop.

AAA officials believe that prices of walnuts in the state will continue for an indefinite period higher than the 1930 to 1934 average, which was 12.6 cents per pound.

ORANGE COUNTY TRUCK SERVICE HELD ADEQUATE

Santa Ana and Orange county have an efficient trucking service as any area in Southern California, according to a report completed and submitted to directors of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce.

The report was made by a special committee headed by P. C. Dietler who was assisted by Luke Miller and D. Kelsey. The committee was appointed by directors of the chamber after it had been intimated that local business was handicapped in freight service not comparable with that extended merchants in competing communities.

According to the report the major portion of Orange county's trucking business is handled through the Pacific Freight Lines and the Southern California Freight Lines. Both companies, according to the report, operate out of Santa Ana giving daily service to all sections of the county and twice daily in some areas.

Both lines give daily service at the beach cities, the investigators learned, and to practically every community, south from Fullerton, Buena Park and Brea. Twice daily service is being maintained between Los Angeles and Los Angeles harbor. In addition the two lines offer the same service to principal points in California that is offered in Los Angeles.

In the report being submitted to the chamber directors it was pointed out that both companies contacted in the survey are willing to give additional delivery service to any of the areas where the regular schedule is not adequate.

In a final paragraph the report pointed out that "Santa Ana is now a jobbing center and distribution center as truck service radiates in all directions from Santa Ana."

S. A. FIRM OUT TO SET RECORD

That Santa Ana business is improving and people are spending more money is indicated by the fact that Wilson and Hill, local General Electric dealers, are leading Southern California in general electric sales, said Bill Hynds, of the Wilson and Hill shop, today.

After winning the Eddie P. Riggie trophy for general electric sales leadership for two successive months, the Wilson and Hill Electric shop has only one more month to go to win the honor of having their name engraved on the cup. This honor is awarded to the general electric shop in Southern California which leads in sales for three successive months. The cup, awarded by the George Belsey company of Los Angeles, was given for the contest by George Belsey in memoriam of Eddie P. Riggie, a former salesman. Riggie was noted for winning every sales campaign he entered and for never missing Broadway.

Set Last Date To Ask For Range Grants

Word was received today at the Farm Adviser's office that December 1 was the closing date for filing applications for range improvement grants under the Agricultural Conservation Act, according to W. M. Cory, Assistant Farm Adviser.

Provisions of the range improvement program permit range owners and operators to earn grants for completing such range building practices as contouring, water development, construction of fences or fireguards by December 31, 1936.

Any range owner or operator wishing further details may obtain the same by applying at the farm adviser's office.

COUNTY HEALTH OFFICER TO BE CLUB SPEAKER

Social problems and how they are linked to health standards of the community, will be discussed Wednesday by K. H. Sutherland, Orange county health officer, at the regular meeting of the Kiwanis Club, Col. M. B. Wellington, head of the Kiwanis public affairs committee, arranged for the principal speaker.

The Santa Ana Kiwanis will hold a joint meeting with the San Bernardino club in the latter city Wednesday, Dec. 2. This will take the place of the regular weekly luncheon meeting here on that date, according to L. Steffenson, chairman of the inter-club committee. It will be a return engagement to further the common interests of the two clubs that were developed here last summer through a visit of the San Bernardino Kiwanis.

Local members of the club who will make the trip, are asked to make reservations with the inter-club committee, which includes Dr. H. Mac Vicker Smith and A. N. Zerman. Homer Chaney, federal director of public forums for Orange county, will be the principal speaker for this occasion.

HINTS OFFERED ON WORRYING

PASADENA, Cal. (UP)—David Seabury, Eastern psychologist, is telling western audiences "How to Worry Successfully." One of his rules is to worry with a smile and another is to get the anger and peeve out of the system before starting to worry in order to give the latter a fair chance.

A sales meeting. It was on his way to one of these meetings that Riggie was killed in an accident.

If the Santa Ana firm wins the cup for highest sales in November, theirs will be the second name to be engraved on the cup, although it has been in circulation for a number of years.

The cup is on display in the Wilson and Hill shop, 228 North Broadway.

Police News

Arrested on Santa Ana boulevard Nov. 9, for traveling 58 miles per hour in a 45-mile zone, Dwight S. Tock, 38, 632 North Broadway, was fined $10 by Judge Kenneth Morrison in Santa Ana justice court yesterday afternoon. Tock was arrested by California highway patrol officers.

Evidence was insufficient to hold Richard Emison, 2335 North Park boulevard, manager of the Santa Ana Lumber company, responsible for the death of a dog belonging to Mrs. Vernon Helmick, 1022 West Fourth, Judge Kenneth Morrison ruled yesterday afternoon in finding in favor of Emison after Mrs. Helmick filed suit to collect $25 from him.

Emison admitted his car struck the animal last September 12, as he passed the Helmick home en route to work, but declared the dog ran into the car. Emison was the only witness to the accident. It was revealed, Judge Morrison ruled the dog's owner should not receive the $25 which she said was half of the dog's value.

CASE SETTLED OUT OF COURT

On motion of Deputy District Attorney Clarence Sprague, who explained that the case had been settled out of court to the entire satisfaction of both the district attorney's office and the complaining witness, charge that Lloyd W. Wood, Los Angeles contractor, had acted as a real estate broker without obtaining a license to do so, was dismissed yesterday by Judge Kenneth Morrison in Santa Ana justice court.

It was explained that, during spring, this year, Wood accepted $100 from Letitia Magruder, 831 South Ross street, in connection with a real estate deal, and, later, when the deal fell through, neglected to return the money to her. Deputy District Attorney Sprague explained that Wood had repaid the money owing and it was "in furtherance of justice" that he asked dismissal of the case. The complaint against Wood had been filed by Irving Shore of the state real estate department.

Ebell society's newly-organized drama section met last night in the clubhouse lounge to outline plans for programs which the group will hold monthly beginning Monday, December 7 at 7:30 p. m. in the lounge. Regular meetings will occur the first Monday of each month, it was decided.

Mrs. L. L. Beaman, leader of the group, appointed a program committee composed of Mesdames J. H. Cloyes, Emily Munro, Henry Williams and John McCoy. Mrs. Robert Guild is secretary of the new section.

"Finders Keepers" by George Kelly provided the program theme last night, with Mrs. Clarence Nis, Mrs. Guild and Mrs. Hugh Gordon leading the study.

Plans were made to read a Christmas play at the December meeting.

Founders' Day
Celebrated By Ebell Society

That the American theater is not so much at fault as in the discriminatory taste of the theater goer, was the opinion of Lillian Burkhardt Goldsmith, popular Los Angeles reviewer of books and plays, who yesterday talked informally on stage matters as introduction to her fine review of Lawrence Housman's "Victoria Regina," for Santa Ana Ebell society.

Special Occasion

The occasion was the society's annual gesture of courtesy to its founders, and through a coincidence, Mrs. Goldsmith had been the program artist 25 years ago at a similar Founders' Day tea. In the interim she has appeared several times before the society, and all ways to the marked pleasure of the members as was yesterday the case.

In advance of her introduction by the president, Mrs. Fred C. Rowland, was the consideration of various business matters including excellent reports of the annual district convention of the past week in Palm Springs. These were presented by Mrs. Charles V. Davis and Mrs. Alice Hill Hatch, two of the club's leaders.

Mrs. J. R. Medlock gave her customary observance to the day by making a gift of $50 to the society. It was in Mrs. Medlock's home that Ebell society came into being just 42 years ago. This was matter for rejoicing, but there was another intimate phase that brought sadness to the hearts of members. This was the beautiful tribute given by Mrs. S. M. Stanley to the memory of the late Mrs. Victor Montgomery, charter member and past president. It was brought out that at the district convention a similar tribute was paid her memory, as she had been a past president of the district federation.

Artists Cited

Following introduction of Mrs. Goldsmith, that speaker gave a rapid survey of some of the great names of the stage, Julia Marlowe, E. H. Sothern, Richard Mansfield, Minnie Maddern Fiske, Otis Skinner, Madame Helen Modjeska and others. She spoke of the elements necessary to a successful play as sympathy, suspense and surprise, and of the value that the stage has in modern life, declaring that the theater can preach and teach as well as the pulpit. The tragedy of a great actor she declared, is that his art dies with him, and she closed this phase of her program by repeating Francois Villon's "The Ballad of Dead Ladies."

Her review of "Victoria Regina" was a masterly one, and her excerpts from the play, described as a series of dramatic incidents, made the character of Britain's indomitable monarch a very real and convincing one.

Following the program, way was led to the peacock room by the charter members present. Mesdames J. R. Medlock, H. Bennett, M. F. Hestman, A. J. Cruickshank and Sam W. Nau. Mrs. Medlock and Mrs. Cruickshank were given places of honor at the silver tea. These were arranged at opposite ends of a table appointed with lace and candles and a decorated anniversary cake. Its scarlet lettering continued the holiday theme of the red-berried shrubbery used so effectively.

Mrs. James A. Torpey, assistant chairman, and the hospitality committee had planned the general effect and the tea menu. Petite fours and tea were served by a group of Girls' Ebell members, the Misses Betty Lacy, Mary Holmes, Betty Timmons, Ruth Ann Segerstrom, Lucille Lambert, Marjorie Mize, Jean Downs and Barbara Tucker. Two other Girls' Ebell members, the Misses Virginia Curry, president, and Eleanor Cogan, a vice president, maintained a Red Cross table in the foyer.

Guests at Club Party Receive Alaskan Souvenirs

Saturday afternoon's meeting of a little sewing club was an especially enjoyable occasion, since it marked the first time that the hostess, Mrs. Margaret Suddaby, had been able to be with the group since her recent serious illness. She entertained in her attractive home on Lemon Heights.

Mrs. Suddaby and Mrs. A. R. Rowley, who made a trip to Alaska last summer, talked informally of the interesting vacation, and presented each member of the club with a souvenir of the northern lands. Three birthday celebrants, Mrs. Charles Sauer, Mrs. Cecil Suddaby and Mrs. V. V. Tubbs, received remembrances from the assembled group.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Arthur Koepel in serving refreshments on individual trays. Bright-hued flowers were used in decorating.

Present were the hostess, Mrs. Margaret Suddaby, with her daughter-in-law and granddaughter, Mrs. Cecil Suddaby and little Miss Patricia Ann; Mesdames Arthur Koepel, Charles Sauer, V. V. Tubbs, A. R. Rowley, William Roberts, E. W. Suddaby, John Sauer, Albert F. Hibbet and Miss Louise Tubbs.

Miss Verena Bailey, daughter of the Adolph Ericksons, 1041 West Sixth street, is spending several days in San Bernardino as guest in the home of her fiancé, Clarence Roberts and his mother, Mrs. William Roberts.

Miss Bailey and Mr. Roberts are supervising the building of their new home in San Bernardino, where the bridegroom-to-be is in the nursery business. The marriage of the couple is anticipated as an event of the holiday season.

Guard-Baker Ceremony
Takes Place
In Our Village Church

Bridegroom and bride of Saturday, November 21, Edmund Guard and his bride, the former Miss Mary Jane Baker, already are established in a pretty apartment at 211 East Eighth street. They returned Sunday evening from Rancho Santa Fe, where they spent the weekend at El Mirador hotel.

Laguna Beach St. Mary's Episcopal church was setting for the quiet ceremony at which Miss Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baker, 920 North Olive street, became the bride of Mr. Guard, 705 Oak street.

The Rev. Robert M. Hogarth read the rites at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attractive in a black suit trimmed in kid caracul, and worn with black accessories. Her corsage bouquet was of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Chrysanthemums lighted by tall tapers decked the church for the ceremony, which was witnessed by the family group including the bride's parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Baker and Miss Jo Ann Baker; the bridegroom's parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Guard and Miss Margaret Guard.

News of the marriage of the young couple came as a surprise to their many friends, who had anticipated the ceremony as an event of December.

Mr. Guard has resumed his duties in the North Main Pharmacy, and the new Mrs. Guard is back in the office of William A. Lower, in the office of William A. Lower. Both young people were graduated from Santa Ana High school, the bridegroom continuing his studies at Stanford University, where he studied pharmacy. The bride is a member of Sigma Theta sorority.

Silver Wedding Given
Happy Observance
In Vaughn Home

Giving happy observance to their silver wedding day, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Vaughn maintained open house Sunday afternoon at their home, 833 East Washington avenue, where relatives and friends assembled in numbers to show interest in the occasion.

It was just 25 years ago that Miss Jennie E. Stack became the bride of M. L. Vaughn at services in St. Mary's Cathedral, Cheyenne, Wyo. Five years later the couple came to Santa Ana which has been the family home ever since.

Entertainment Sunday afternoon was provided by a mock wedding in which the hosts were required to repeat the vows before a solemn deacon, enacted by T. A. Stack of Long Beach. With a large scrap book as his Bible, he joined the couple in "holy bonds of matrimony."

Mrs. Vaughn's aunt, Miss Mary E. Stack, was maid of honor, two little nieces, Joan and Donna Planchon, were train bearers, and John D. Vaughn, young son of the home, was ring bearer.

Miss Virginia Vaughn, daughter of the home, was assisted by Miss Grace Greenwood of Carlsbad in serving the decorated angelfood wedding cake with coffee and chilled fruitade. Table appointments included a cluster of white chrysanthemums with blue bachelors and tiny golden "mums." Similar bouquets of flowers were used about the home.

Among the many handsome gifts was a complete set of table silver from members of the family. Mrs. Vaughn was charmingly gowned in Alice blue crepe with touches of creamy lace. She wore her "bridegroom's" gift of a long shoulder spray of Tailsman roses.

Among the relatives and close friends sharing the happy occasion with Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn and their children, Virginia and John D. Vaughn, were several out-of-town guests, including Messrs. and Mesdames James A. Greenwood and J. O. Kinnam and Miss Grace Greenwood, Carlsbad; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Stack, Lawrence Stack, Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Stack, the Misses Mary Elizabeth and Virginia Mae Stack, and Edward Stack, Hawthorne. From this vicinity were Mrs. Mary Hillman, Mrs. M. Sturbaum, Mrs. Laneaux, Mrs. Alcide Meric and daughter, Rose Marie Messers, and Mesdames Orr, John D. Planchon and William L. Faulkner, the Misses Mary E. Stack, Ella Mae Bevier, Jean Bishop, and little Donna and Joan Planchon.

Wedding Announcement Comes as Surprise To Friends

Coming as a happy surprise to friends and relatives was the announcement made today by Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cummings, 1232 West Fifth street, of the wedding of their daughter, Miss Helen Cummings, to R. Y. Engeman of Los Angeles. The event occurred Tuesday, November 17, in the Broadway wedding chapel, Los Angeles, with Dr. Percy A. Dean reading the service.

The bride was attired in a smart gray tulle with white goyette blouse and black dress accessories. Her flowers were gardenias in corsage arrangement. There were no attendants.

The new Mrs. Engeman had her early schooldays in Santa Ana later graduating from Garden Grove high school. Mr. Engeman is affiliated with the bureau of water and power in Los Angeles.

The young couple plan to go north to June Lake to make their home after a few days' visit with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cummings.

County Legion Auxiliary
Units Join In Initiation

Increased by more than a dozen new members, Santa Ana American Legion auxiliary today may recall with satisfaction, the success of its annual membership dinner held last night in Veterans' hall, at which county units joined as special guests, and brought with them seventeen auxiliary and four junior auxiliary candidates to be initiated.

That Santa Ana auxiliary's courtesy in opening its annual membership tent to the several county units was an appreciated one, was indicated by the large number who came from various nearby communities to take part in the affair, and see their friends initiated into the organization. Original reservations for approximately 150 diners were increased to an additional table had to be arranged to accommodate the overflow crowd. With their customary resourcefulness, the hostesses were able to serve their tempting creamed chicken and hot biscuits, their salads and dessert to the full number of guests. Serving was accomplished by Legion Drum Corps members with deftness and speed.

Tables were sparkling with candles in the auxiliary blue and gold, arranged on fluted festoons of crepe paper in the same colors. At the special guest table, white cloths were overlaid with blue and gold tulle centered with a large basket of yellow chrysanthemums and blue larkspur. The handsome quilt just completed by Legion Mothers' club, formed appropriate background.

Special Guests

Mrs. Tona Sandon, president of the hostess unit, sat at this table with the several guests who were introduced. They included C. M. Fitch, commander of Legion Post No. 131; Marjorie Peabody, past district president and present district chairman of education; Pauline Cleary, district vice-president; four unit presidents, Nella Norton, Newport Beach; Ada Kirkpatrick, Huntington Beach; Fay Moffett, Seal Beach, and Matilda Hood, La Habra. Others introduced were Mrs. Amy Stewart, acting president of Legion Mothers' club; Nancy Charlotte Hoover, president of Santa Ana Junior auxiliary; and Mrs. Sandon's co-officers.

Santa Ana officers included with the immediate past president, Alma Hoover, the vice presidents, Kay Rasmussen and Anna Scudder, Josephine Lykke, Rosanna Hardcastle and Alice Dodder, executive board. Concluding her introductions, Mrs. Sandon presented her own two young daughters, Phyllis, junior past president of the Junior auxiliary, and Mary Ann.

Program Features

Brief musical entertainment followed the dinner hour, when Mrs. Marian Mathews introduced the little Burks Sisters in their entertaining musical and reading numbers. With Miss Anna Mae as pianist, the talented little colored girls won new friends by their spirited interpretation of Negro spirituals, including "Traveling On," "Little David," and similar numbers. Anna Mae played a piano solo, "Lights Out," with Marvella singing the chorus, and the interval closed with a skit in which the tiny Oclida took honors, with Anna Mae, Marvella and Dora Lee assisting.

Other program features which followed the initiation rites included a brief talk by Mrs. Peabody, who as district chairman of education, devoted her remarks to the activities of her department and the educational program of the state. At this time various announcements were made, including the County Presidents' council tonight at 7:30 o'clock with Joe Del Burry, Huntington Beach. This will be the first meeting under the presidency of Nora McCalla of this city.

Plans were made for a Christmas benefit party in the hall Monday, December 14 at 8 p. m., open to the public, and for the annual Christmas exchange of post and auxiliary on the night of December 17 in Veterans' hall.

Floor Work

Well executed maneuvers on the part of the Auxiliary Drill team captained by Rosanna Hardcastle, made initiation rites interesting. At points in the ritualistic work, sextet members hummed a musical obligato to the solemn words, adding to their effectiveness.

From Newport Harbor unit came the class of Juniors as well as half a dozen initiates for the general unit. Juniors were Mary Group, Mary Shaffer, Mary and Pat Ganahl. Admitted to the auxiliary unit were Edith Downing, Mabel Cummings, Esther Sund, Bee Ford, Mollie Rawlings and Isabel Ganahl. Anahel Bay and Seal Beach initiates were Doris Niblick, Alyce Mitchell, Bessie Sales, Thelma Upham, Mabel Moffitt, Clara Harmon, Daisy Nichols, Emma Burnie. La Habra was represented by Jennie Long and Pauline Savage; Placentia by Pansy Van Oost, while the Santa Ana class numbered Ora Graham, Marie Voskuiter, Ursula Teif, Frances Thatcher, Hazel Dane, Alice Canfield, Sarah Snell, Nannie Lester, Hazel Sackerson, Adelaide Saterly, Mayme Homan, Marguerite McCarty and Edna Rosenbaum.

Fascinating Program
Marks Quill Pen
Club Meeting

Program features and other details of last night's meeting of Quill Pen club in the home of Mrs. E. Wells and her daughter, Miss Verna Wells, 524 Halladay street, combined to make the affair one of the most enjoyable which the group has held this season.

Guests sharing the affair with a large group of members were Mrs. James Small, Mrs. Harvey Fitton, Miss Frances Donovan and Mrs. Byron Stebbins. Mrs. Fitton's contribution to the program was a beautifully written little article on "Memories." Miss Donovan read a character sketch, "Chicken for Jim," an exciting incident in the life of a group of schoolgirls provided the theme for another in the Marcella Story series given by the authors, Mrs. Frank Was. Mrs. Marah Adams contributed a short story, "A Man of Means" written by her son, Kenneth Adams. Representative of the work of Mrs. Kenneth Adams were greeting card verses, several of which have been sold to a well known card firm.

Mrs. William Fritcher read from a "Sandwich Sue" series of children's stories. Mrs. J. D. Campbell provided a clever article, "Dear Madam" by Ruth Wallace Davey, which appeared in a recent issue of "The Publisher's Weekly," and was read by Mrs. Marshall Harms.

Mrs. Wells, president, conducted a business meeting following which plans were made to hold the annual Christmas party December 23 at 7:30 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Roy Winchester, 2516 North Park boulevard. Names were drawn in readiness for a gift exchange, and it was decided to issue the annual Quill Pen newspaper as a program feature of the holiday meeting.

The next program will be held December 14 in the home of Mrs. Harry M. Smith, 1416 North Broadway.

The two hostesses concluded their hospitality by serving a delicious dessert course of homemade cream puffs, candies and nuts with coffee and tea.

NICE ADVANCEMENT

Congratulations of Santa Ana friends are being extended to the Roger Hearnes formerly of Riverside, but now of Los Angeles, upon Mr. Hearnes' gratifying advancement in his post with the Goodrich company. For he has been promoted from a wholesale salesmanship position in the district to the post of southern district supervisor, with Los Angeles headquarters.

Mrs. Hearnes was Miss Virginia Bailey of this city, daughter of Mrs. Mayme Homan, 1916 North Ross street. She was a charter member of Junior Ebell society, which she served as secretary, and a member of Sigma Theta sorority. She and Mr. Hearnes have made their home in Riverside for the past year or so, but return to this city for various social affairs, including the Tux and Gown dances.

Two Boyhood Friends
Will Arrive for Holiday

Among home-coming folk for the Thanksgiving holidays will be Walter Reeves, who is expected to arrive tomorrow accompanied by Mrs. Reeves and their small son, Walter Eaton Reeves, and the two older children of the home, Donnie and Jeanne Acre, to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. Reeves' mother and aunt, Mrs. H. H. Reeves and Miss Carrie Seaton, 1009 French street.

In the home of Mrs. Anna Gale, 307 East Tenth street, there are equally happy anticipations for Mrs. Gale's son, Lieutenant Guy Gale of the U. S. Aviation Corps, is expected to arrive from Indianapolis, where Mrs. Gale visited him and his family so recently. He is coming out to take possession of a new army plane at the Santa Monica plant, and will fly it back to Indianapolis, and Mrs. Gale is hoping he will be here to share her Thanksgiving holiday. Varied Means
Of Transport
Bring Guests

By train, by automobile and by airplane, daily are arriving the scattered members of the Segerstrom family to stage here in the family home, their annual observance of Thanksgiving.

When all are eventually assembled they will number twenty-three, although a few close friends will help swell the total, for some of the college students are bringing roommates to join in the gala celebration.

The home of Mrs. C. J. Segerstrom on Route 4, will be the general meeting place, although two sons of the family will open their Santa Ana homes for different observances, so that it will be almost a "movable feast" for the entire holiday week end. From Sonora will come Mr. and Mrs. Charles Segerstrom and Mr. and Mrs. Eric Segerstrom and their families, including two college student daughters, Miss Marjorie from Stanford, and Miss Martha from Mills College. The latter is a member of the Charles Segerstrom family circle, and Miss Marjorie is a daughter of the Eric Segerstroms. Charles Segerstrom Jr., will be the only absent member of the closely knitted circle, but his studies at Harvard School of Business Administration do not permit his crossing the continent for the brief Thanksgiving recess.

Miss Christine Segerstrom will arrive from Los Angeles to join her mother, sisters and brothers, Mrs. Segerstrom, the Misses Ann and Ida Segerstrom and Messrs. Will and Fred Segerstrom of the ranch home; the visiting relatives and the two Santa Ana brothers, Harold and Anton Segerstrom with their respective families.

One of the gayest of the anticipated events aside from the holiday feast itself, promises to be the family breakfast Thanksgiving morning when the whole merry crew will gather at the ranch home. For the younger members of the visiting relatives, the Thanksgiving dance of Girls' Ebell society on Friday night holds forth special attractions, and Miss Ruth Ann, daughter of the Anton Segerstroms, 1914 Victoria drive, is making her own interesting plans in connection with this.

ORANGE B. P. W. HEARS TALK ON YEAR'S BEST SELLERS

ORANGE, Nov. 24.—Having as their principal speaker, Mrs. Mabel Faulkner, Orange Librarian and fellow-member of the club, Business and Professional Women met last evening for a 6:30 o'clock dinner at the American Legion clubhouse.

A large group gathered around the tables, which were artistically centered with autumn leaves and bright persimmons. Audrey Peterson, presided at a short business meeting, during which guests were introduced, announcements made, and communications read. The program chairman was Ruth Helen Chase, who presented little Miss Patsy Ruth Smith who entertained with two tap dances.

Bringing to her audience a review of the season's best seller, Margaret Mitchell's novel "Gone With the Wind," Mrs. Faulkner outlined the book, chapter by chapter, describing Civil war times and each character, whose life was interwoven with the strife.

"The story centers in the heart of the south, the greater portion of scenes being laid in Atlanta, Ga., in the first part of the book. The second part deals with Sherman's march to the sea, while the latter part tells of reconstruction of the south following the war," said Mrs. Faulkner. "The plot itself deals with the life and loves of one Scarlett O'Hara, the daughter of an aristocratic southern mother, Ellen Robelar, and her cocky, robust Irish father, Gerald O'Hara. Scarlett is one of six children and while she has the appearance of a sweet and demure child, really is, at heart, ruthless and wild. Married three times, through an odd series of circumstances, Scarlett's life is fashioned not as she has herself fancied but in harmony with the ever-changing uncertainty of Civil war days. The negro element is treated with a great deal of sincerity and understanding as only one who was raised in the south, as the author, Miss Mitchell, can write and understand."

The meeting was concluded with cards. First prize at contract was awarded to Mrs. Rachel Williams and second to Mrs. Audrey Peterson and first prize at auction to Miss Martha Steele. Guests at last night's meeting were the Misses Rachel Williams, Martha Steele, Marvel Baker, Mary Daum and Janet Watson.

Full attendance at an important legislative session of the board of directors of the Orange County Farm Bureau at 8 a. m. Friday in the farm bureau hall, 622 North Main street, was urged Tuesday by D. R. Gardner, bureau president.

One of the most important features of Friday's session will be the consideration of various resolutions that have been received from counties throughout the state, and which will be submitted to the regional meeting at San Bernardino Saturday. The resolutions will be acted next in Pasadena.

NEGRO IS WHITE FOLLOWING BATH

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 24.—(UP)—This is the strange story of a Negro named White whose color mysteriously turned to match his name.

William Pickens White, 67-year-old darky living at Jaggars "old folks' home" for colored people, got in the bathtub for a scrub. He was as black as his race comes, but when he got out he was as white as the driven snow.

For about 12 years, White relates, he has had "peculiar white specks on mah face, and lately on mah hands." But only following the bath, and quite suddenly, did the mantle of black disappear, leaving a coat of white, pinkish flesh.

His first words upon discovering the change were, "Lord, Jesus, mah God, what's happened?"

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—(UP)—Officials of the American Medical association were a bit skeptical to day of William White's story that he scrubbed his Negro skin white while taking a bath.

"What William probably has," they said, "is vitiligo, a disease in which white patches develop on negro skin."

The truck "accident" reported at Fourth and Ross streets yesterday wasn't anything but a collision between bicycles, police learned upon investigation. It was reported, at first, that a hit-and-run truck driver had knocked two youths from their bicycles and sped on. Deputy Sheriff R. R. Lutes and A. W. Fullerton are investigating.

Len Harvey, 806 Lacy, explaining to police that a man backed his car into his last night, failed to stop and give his name, asked for the name of the registered owner of a car bearing license number 2-D-4595. The officers checked records in Sacramento and reported to Harvey the license number is registered to W. P. Wright, 1008 West Highland, Santa Ana.

Police today were searching for two girls who escaped from the juvenile home here last night, by jumping from a rear window. The girls were described as follows: No. 1, heavy set, wearing dark skirt and dark sweater. No. 2, wearing light blue dress.

ADmits THEFT OF GUN TO OFFICERS

Anaheim police were almost shocked last night when Perry Ferguson, 36, who said he comes from Yuma, Ariz., walked into their police station and gave himself up, claiming he stole a .38 Colt special revolver from a car in Santa Ana last August 8.

Then, when Detective Lieutenant Charles W. Wolford began an investigation today and found that nobody knew anything about a gun stolen on August 8, Ferguson "broke" down and confessed he has served time twice in Potosi and once in the state prison at Florence, Ariz., on burglary convictions.

"I was accused of committing murder in Florence, too," he said. "But I beat the rap. By-the-way, I said that gun I stole here, to a Negro in Los Angeles."

Then he added he also had served time in Napa state hospital, in Northern California. "It is very probable this man committed a very serious crime some place and wants to be put away in prison to hide out," Wolford declared. Anaheim police will prosecute Ferguson on a vagrancy charge.

News of Marcia's trip to Chicago causes more gossip in the town in which she lives. Marcia arrives home.

NOW GO TO CHAPTER XII

ON the following day there took place another holdup, remarkable not alone for the amount of loot involved, but because of its wholesome character and because it was committed by the same four men who had robbed the Dog Wagon and its customers, and who were generally credited with having been the authors of several previous robberies as well.

Mrs. Harold Henderson, sister-in-law of the woman who was directing "Half-Acre in Eden" for the Stagecraft Guild, was giving a benefit party at her home. Approximately a hundred women of Bobbs Neck had gathered for cards, tea and cakes and the promotion of the Village Welfare Society budget.

Conversation had reached that crescendo which indicates that a benefit bridge is at the zenith when the four men entered the house without benefit of the doorbell, and taking advantageous positions in the doorways between living room, dining room and sun porch, announced that this was a "stick-up."

The husband of Mrs. Henderson's maid, assisting for the afternoon, had just gone to the back porch to bring in the inevitable cream. He was viewing a hitherto unseen member of the bandit gang, a young man who was lounging at the side of the house and who, at sight of the Negro, commanded him profanely to get back in the house, emphasizing the order with a pistol, quickly revealed and quickly shoved back into the pocket of his overcoat.

In the house the stripping of valuable property was accomplished within a very few minutes.

ANAHEIM SENIORS TO OFFER COSTUME PLAY, 'DOUBLE DOOR'

ANAHEIM, Nov. 24.—Anaheim high school seniors are presenting the first mystery play which has been given as a high school production in many years at 8 p. m. tomorrow. The play is "Double Door" by Elizabeth McFadden and is one of the newer mystery plays, being presented for the first time in New York in 1933. The senior class play will be the first student offering at the new high school auditorium and will include the one performance only.

This is also the first costume play the high school classes under Mrs. Faye Kern Schulz have attempted in many years. It has a setting in 1910 which makes the costumes particularly attractive. The United Costumers of Hollywood has provided the costumes and the Cinema Mercantile company of Hollywood, the stage furnishings.

Another "first" is the fact that Anaheim is the first high school to present the play on the Pacific coast. LaVerne college gave it last year.

Practically all members of the cast were in the junior class play last year with Danny Marshall, the lead of "Seventeen," as the male lead in this play. Margaret Gauer, who also played a role in "Seventeen," is the leading feminine play-er in "Double Door," about whom the play revolves. She is not only prominent in dramatics at Anaheim high school, but is Girls League president and active in the Girls' Athletic association as well. Mrs. Schulz says her work in the current production is exceptional.

Other leads are taken by Florine Spaenhover and Peggy Lou Berthum, both of whom had parts in "Seventeen." Minor roles are played by Robert Quast, Burl Grow, David Clark, George Winand, Mary Agnes Shaver, Mary Althea Endicott, Jack Fitzgerald and Ray Heinze.

The production staff includes Lloyd Ross, programs and tickets; Mason Henry, box office and reserved tickets; Kathleen Hall, wardrobe; H. V. Schulz, make-up; and J. Johnson, microphone and lighting.

The school orchestra will provide music. Usher will include Marcelita Sutton, Wanda Smith, Louise Benson, Berenice Hargrove, Maxine Hopkins, Catherine Heinz, Caroline Gibbs and Patricia Waltz. Tickets may be obtained at the high school box office.

BURKE AND BERRY TRIAL IS POSTPONED

At request of the district attorney and with consent of J. Frank Burke and A. B. Berry, the trial of Burke and Berry on charges they were responsible for printing materials derogatory to Supervisor William Jerome, shortly before the November 3 election, was postponed today until Dec. 9 at 9 a. m. in Judge Kenneth Morrison's Santa Ana justice court.

The district attorney asked the postponement on the ground his calendar of work at present is exceptionally heavy.

HALF-ACRE IN EDEN

and the four men prepared to depart, first cutting the telephone wires.

The police, when they arrived, were satisfied, first, that the four men were the Dog Wagon robbers, and second, that the four had the assistance of three outside men, a fact suspected in that former robbery but not verified.

MARCIA CANFIELD and Helen Waddell had passed the afternoon in more dignified, less social, endeavor for the welfare organization. They had accompanied the nurse on her rounds, and by occupying themselves with the new babies and other troubles of the town's less affluent citizens saved the jewelry they wore and the money they carried.

After dinner they discussed the idea of going to the movies. "It suits me," said Marcia. "I haven't seen a movie in weeks, and tomorrow night there's rehearsal again. Let's—there goes the phone."

It was Joan Bradford, wife of Mike. Mr. Bradford, she said, had brought an old friend from the west out to dinner, and wouldn't Marcia and Helen do her a great favor and drop in for a while to help entertain him?

"After all, why shouldn't we?" said Helen as they drove toward the Bradford house. "She'd do as much for us if we were stuck."

Joan admitted them, and they paused in the hall to remove their coats.

"This is getting to be a habit," said a voice from the living room. "You!" said Marcia.

"I still am not trailing you," Bruce McDougall told Marcia as he crossed the room toward them. "I can't claim that good management does all—I'm just one of those lucky people you read about. You may as well give in."

"And you both may as well bring our puzzled faces back to their calm and unstrained normalcy," Mike contributed. "Where did you two meet before—or is this a gag?"

IT was not a gag, they told him. And they told the rest of their story. Joan and Helen found some delightful quality in the coincidence which was a mystery to Mike.

"Are you visiting for long?" Marcia asked McDougall. "Excuse me if the first few observations are the usual inanities." "I'm not visiting," he said. "I am a candidate for permanent residence. Do you remember, in the coffee shop of the hotel in Chicago, when the bellboy asked me? That was a call from New York. I had sent in an application for a job, and had given the hotel in Chicago as an address because I had to be there during the trial. I could reasonably expect an answer. The call was to tell me my job was mine. So here I am. Lots of 'em. That's grand," said Marcia. "What—what business are you in?"

McDougall looked pained. "Don't you remember my giving you a sample?"

"Oh, an artist? I'm sorry, though that was a hobby, I gave me."

"It may look like a hobby, but it's like bread and butter, sometimes meat and dessert dishes."

"Where are you going to work?" "In New York, I thought, to be near perhaps Bobbs Neck, if all 1422, merits of the town are as genuine as the Bradfords paint them."

"I mean for what magazine, or whatever?"

"A SYNDICATE. They paid me my stuff to the newspaper. I draw a daily feature called 'Scenes from Life.' I did something like it out west for one year. It was so good that a public clamor arose for wider circulation. I held back, modestly, but the call became too great. I was persuaded, and here I am. Do they have studios here? In Bobbs Neck? I mean studio, not real estate development studio."

"I can't think of any official said Marcia. 'You may be faced with the necessity of tearing the north wall of a house and putting in your own studio window. 'Not this house, he can't,' interrupted Mike.

"When do you start to work?" "Bruce?" asked Joan.

"Not until next week."

"Then there's no sense in your going back to your hotel in city tonight. You can just stay here for a day or so; Mike has seen you in ages, and I'm so proud of the guest room, besides."

"Let the poor guy go back town," advised Mike. "I won't see much of him out here. He's working all day, and tomorrow night, too, probably. What would he do, moping around here?"

"Joan could bring him to tomorrow night's rehearsal," suggested Helen. "As long as he's going to settle down in the village, he may as well know us at least."

It was pleasant, thought Marcia, to see him again—this young man who was half assured, half naïf and a bit embarrassed at moments. "Well—," he said, "I oughtn't to be here."

"But I guess I will," said McDougall.

ALLEGEDLY DRUNK DRIVER FACES FELONY CHARGE

Unless Harold Kincaid, 23, Texas Auto camp (or formerly, 1914 that place), Oceanside, has an alibi, fully good excuse when he showed up at Tustin justice court last time, to face preliminary hearing on a drunk driving charge, he will find himself also facing a felony charge of "jumping bond."

Kincaid, discovered, asserted, weaving his car about on 101 highway, near Tustin, last Tuesday afternoon, by Deputy District Attorney Harold McCabe and Court Reporter Bill White, was arrested after being followed by Deputy Sheriff P. McKelvey and Tom Murphy, who went in search for him.

Stating he was a government engineer, Kincaid obtained his release on $250 bail, posted through a bail bondsman. But when he was called before Justice J. T. Higgins Tustin, this morning, Kincaid was conspicuous by his absence with the court. And he may be. Officers are wanting to know where he is looking for him to find out. The bail bondsman wants to know, too.

ACCEPTING A CHALLENGE

Perhaps the speaker at Monday night's federal forum was sincere in his attempt to enlighten his audience on certain phases of the gathering of news by reputable newspapers, the great press associations, and the interpretation thereof in editorial columns by newspapers that seek to provoke honest thought in the public mind. We think the speaker was sincere.

And The Register by the same token reserves the right to be regarded as sincere when it expresses the belief that the federal forum speaker "colored" the news of the newspapers, and disseminated plenty of propaganda of destructive nature. In short, the speaker, however well he may have been his intentions, openly invited justly deserved criticism from all the press, regardless of so-called policy or creed.

The speaker quite clearly hinted that the great majority of newspapers in the United States "slanted" or colored important local, state and national news stories and dispatches to the extent that the public was wholly bereft of the truth about the content therein. It should appear obvious to the average newspaper reader (and it is obvious to the management of every newspaper) that it would be impossible for the press to pursue such a policy because of the certainty of immediate detection, and subsequent loss of prestige and reputation or reliability in its particular territory. Of course, to say there is no such thing as an unscrupulous newspaper is tantamount to saying there are no families that have skeletons in the closets. But The Register firmly believes those are exceptions.

Regrettably, the speaker not only lashed a soft, well-modulated tones at individual and "string" newspapers, but he committed what we think is next door to slander upon the three great press associations, namely, the United Press, the Associated Press, and the International News Service. He clearly intimated that the majority of dispatches and stories from these highly reputable news-gathering and news-conveying agencies were deliberately colored and "propagandized" before they were sent to their members or patron newspapers. Such an intimation is ridiculous, and to our minds could be conceived only by the woefully uninformed student or observer. Consider for a moment how much time a representative of any one of these services has to permit his dispatch to be censored.

The representatives of these agencies are reporters, working under terrific stress of time and against stiff opposition of each agency. And this situation prevails every time an important governmental person makes a statement, or every time an important news story breaks.

The Register also firmly believes it doubtful if any man with financial responsibility could dare make such statements, virtually accusing the great news agencies of being crooks or incompetents. Of course, man without such responsibility may make such remarks with impunity. This is one of the dubious benefits of freedom of speech. The Register does not wish to appear overly sensitive on the points it has cited, but it does feel a responsibility to the men and women who listened to Monday night's federal forum discussion. And it may be said in conclusion that we honestly think the speakers on the federal forum platform could bring far greater benefits by appearing with open minds, and with bias or prejudice toward none.

COST OF ACQUIRING CAPITAL

When the great majority of people believe that this is the land of plenty and that we have more capital than we know how to use, it is only natural to make every attempt to dissipate capital. Every individual who has made any observation well knows that we cannot have a high standard of living unless we have sufficient units of production. Observation teaches us that in many cases, in order to have efficient production, large units are necessary. We cannot have cheap automobiles without large manufacturing plants. This is true because the more models made, the lower the cost per unit will be. We have had, in the past, nearly a thousand automobile manufacturers. Now there are hardly two-score producing automobiles. Everyone knows that we are buying more automobile now for the money than we ever did in the past. This is due to large amount of capital being assembled together in large production units.

Our new tax laws will make it more difficult in the future to assemble large amounts of capital in units of production. Just suppose an individual needed $100,000 of capital and was obliged to sell and persuade 100 different investors to invest rather than to be able to sell this to one or two investors. The cost undoubtedly would be many times more to accumulate $100,000 from 100 individuals than it would from one or two. This increased cost, of course, prevents the product being sold for as low a price as it would be if the capital were easily acquired. This, of course, raises the cost of living.

Many people are jubilant about the income tax and the undistributed surplus capital tax, believing that this increases purchasing power. It does today, but, over a long period of time, it greatly reduces the purchasing power of the individual. The cost of capital is always added to the selling price and the customer eventually pays for capital being scarce.

DENTAL PSYCHOLOGY

Few businesses, probably, encounter as much sales resistance as the profession of dentistry. It is almost as easy to sell a refrigerator to an Eskimo as to lure certain patients who need dental attention to a dentist's office.

Now comes Dr. Louis R. Hill, Los Angeles dentist-lecturer, with some suggestions to his fellow professionals. Addressing 800 colleagues in Cleveland, he advised, among other things, that they abandon the words "extract" and "grind" as fear-inspiring, and substitute "remove" and "smooth." Also, that each of them should practice smiling before a mirror. A smile, Dr. Hill believes, helps quiet a patient's alarm.

This, of course, may be all to the good. But if a patient has a morbid fear of drill and forceps, we wonder whether it would still his quails if his dentist, with a Cheshire grin, inquired, "How about a little removing and smoothing today?"

Many kinds of fruit grow upon the tree of life, but none so sweet as friendship; as with the orange-tree, its blossoms and fruit appear at the same time, full of refreshment for sense and for soul.

Eugene O'Neill Gets Prize In Five Acts

Day By Day In Washington

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright, 1936)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—There are two distinct attitudes which may at the moment be assumed toward the future of the New Deal both by those who have supported it and by those who have opposed it. One is to take it for granted that President Roosevelt has finished the major part of his experimentation and that he will henceforth try to perfect some of the reforms already begun and that this will involve a sort of business-as-usual point of view with only some moderate changes here and there in the interest of true progressivism.

The other attitude is far more realistic and takes for granted that Mr. Roosevelt was never fully understood either by his critics or by many of his somewhat conservative-minded supporters, especially in the south, who keep on assuring their friends that the president is at heart a conservative and means to turn to the right.

In the weeks that have followed the election, there has been a sort of I-told-you-so feeling expressed by the moderates or conservatives in the Roosevelt ranks. They have pointed to the enactment of Undersecretary Tugwell of the agricultural department as corroborative proof of the correctness of their analysis.

It is the duty of a Washington correspondent to report conscientiously what is going on, whether he personally likes the goings on or not. To say, therefore, that America is about to enlarge her experiment in controlled economy at the next session of congress will see the enactment of several new laws to carry further the objectives of controlled economy is merely to record the truth, pleasant or unpleasant as it may be, depending on whether one looks on the Roosevelt victory as the end of a fight for simple progressivism or the beginning of a surgical operation on the capitalist system.

There is no clearer example of this than in the comments being heard about Dr. Tugwell's resignation. The joy with which the resignation has been received in certain conservative quarters indicates that they have learned nothing from the election returns and that they are about to continue to drift in an atmosphere of wishful thinking and hoping that maybe the New Deal is going to let up on them after all.

I have disagreed with many of Dr. Tugwell's policies and doctrines, but I respect his point of view and believe that, if controlled economy did happen to work out successfully, people would some day look upon Tugwell as the pioneer martyr to a cause, or his self-offacement does not erase the fact that his policies have been put into effect, and some of his proposals will be written into law in the next congress, but will bear the names of congressmen and senators who will take all the credit.

It is essential for every conservative, every progressive, and every business man and every labor leader to study Tugwellism. For whether Mr. Roosevelt ever publicly concedes it or not, his next messages to congress will embody the Tugwell principles. How can one prove such an assertion? The answer is that Dr. Tugwell, as the father of the present tax on undistributed surplus of corporations, has just achieved the most notable vindication that any man in public life could hope for. Conservatives in the United States senate, like Chairman Pat Harrison of the finance committee, are now singing the praises of the law they originally opposed and are saying that the distribution of dividends and wage increases shows what a fine piece of legislation it really is.

Rex Tugwell is too serious-minded and too modest to gloat or chuckle over what is happening, but one might hazard the guess that, if he were to speak his mind, he would say, "If I was right on the other parts of my plan to regulate the allocation of capital in America and prevent the growth of booms or the coming of severe depressions?"

Let us recall what Dr. Tugwell wrote in 1933, before most people in the business or labor or political world really knew how much President Roosevelt was leaning on the young professor of economics in Columbia university. The book is called "Industrial Discipline," and was published by the Columbia University Press, and its chapters, read in the light of what has happened since, constitute the fulfillment of a prophecy far more potent than the lucky prediction made by Jim Farley on the electoral votes of a national election. Mr. Farley guessed the mathematics of an organized voting machine of national proportions, but Mr. Tugwell guessed the economics of a capitalist evolution, to which word some people are tempted to prefix the small letter "r."

How then, asked Dr. Tugwell in 1933, shall the problem of capital allocation be attacked? Here was his answer: "On general, the principle invoked would be to drive corporate surpluses into the open investment market; for most of the trouble comes from self-allocation occurring strictly within a single organization. It is over-optimistic internal expansion and the use of funds, earned in the past, to commit the concern to increased activity which cause the problems of surplus which yearly grow more acute."

"To meet this problem it is frequently suggested that a tax be imposed on funds, over and above replacement, which are kept for expansion purposes. If taxation forced these funds into distribution as dividends, they would have to seek reinvestment through the regular channels, and a concern's plans for expansion would be subject to check in the investment market. It might be said incidentally, also, that a salutary check upon present practices in issuing stock dividends and concealing earnings for manipulative purposes would follow."

"Once all funds were forced into the investment market, however, some other means of supervising their uses would be needed. This might be done through the federal incorporation of business. For new capital issues, then, revision of original charters would be necessary."

Judging by the talk being heard in New Deal quarters this very month in Washington about legislation to compel federal incorporation of businesses, Dr. Tugwell may soon be able to chalk up another score for his prophetic vision. The American Federation of Labor is known to favor the plan because it will give the federal government powers that are only partly being exercised now through the labor-sponsored Walsh-Healey act, governing the award of federal contracts only to those who accept labor standards set up by the Washington administration.

Likewise, Senator O'Mahoney of Wyoming, who had a bill on federal incorporation at the last session of congress, has indicated he will press it for passage in the new congress which begins in January. There is some doubt about the constitutionality of such legislation, but this would not prove an obstacle to passage by congress and trial in the supreme court and ultimately, indeed, a constitutional amendment if the invalidated experiment showed signs of winning popular approval.

Just what may be expected from this legislation was outlined by Dr. Tugwell, also in his book in 1933, as follows: "If industries were to be controlled, incorporation of business enterprises would need, in effect, to be transferred from the states to the nation, though some subterfuge might need to be employed. The flow of new capital into different uses would need to be supervised; prices would have to be controlled; and some vital interests, now wholly or partially neglected, would need to be protected. These last would include the weaker businesses, consumers, workers, farmers, technicians, all of which suffer now from disadvantages and discriminations which are too obvious to be denied. All these things, from the present point of vantage, necessary elements of a scheme which would give the federal government powers commensurate with the responsibilities widely laid at its doorstep....

"There are those who will say that what the public actively desires, it will find ways to achieve; but it is worth noting that such achievements are easier if some scouting is carried on ahead of the event, if possibilities are explored and experimented with in the imagination."

"One possibility is constitutional amendment. But that seems far off indeed. Are there ways in which existing institutions can be better used to attain the same results?—On the whole, it is better to make use, so far as that can be done, of familiar instruments; it is easier to persuade people to acceptance if what is to be done can be shown to involve, not something new and untried, but merely the extension of present half-recognized and freely used means. With this in mind and quite conditionally, it may be valuable to cast up the situation presented by the problem of controlling the allocation of capital and fixing prices."

That was in 1933 and a constitutional amendment wasn't achieved upon, but a series of laws to achieve the same objectives. The theory that NRA was right because it "affected" interstate commerce, the passage of the se-

Thoughts On Modern Life

BY GLENN FRANK

ON REFORMING THE SUPREME COURT

Whether by initiative of the Administration or not, we shall doubtless hear widespread discussion of the role of the Supreme Court in the development of national policy as affecting the governance of modern economic relations.

The Public Affairs Committee is rendering a public service, therefore, in issuing such pamphlets as its recent brochure on The Supreme Court and the Constitution. This pamphlet, like the others in the series, is primarily factual and non-argumentative.

It outlines with admirable clarity the five major schools of thought regarding a reform of the Supreme Court.

(1) Those who would increase the number of judges and fill the new posts with men to their liking, a method known in cloakroom slang as "packing the court."

(2) Those who would limit the jurisdiction of the court so that it would, at least, have fewer chances to invalidate acts of Congress.

(3) Those who would provide that the court could not invalidate an act of Congress with less than a seven to two vote.

(4) Those who would provide that a decision of the court invalidating an act of Congress could be set aside by a two-thirds vote of Congress.

(5) Those who would take away from the court, by constitutional amendment, all authority to declare acts of Congress unconstitutional.

There are considerations in connection with each of these five proposals that do not readily occur to one who has not examined the proposals fully.

For the next five days I shall explore these five proposals in the hope of giving the readers of this column a good actual background for the discussions into which they will inevitably be thrown in the months ahead.

OUR CHILDREN

BY ANGELO PATRI

THE YOUNG GIRL

A young girl of today is beset by many problems. Girls of the older day had theirs, it is true, but they did not have the complicated lives of the present day girls, and so their solutions came easier.

Many of the girls in the upper grades of the high schools come from homes where the fathers and mothers have sacrificed much to make homes for them and to maintain them in better circumstances than they knew. Many of these fathers and mothers have carried along the principles of conduct that guided their lives in their youth. They do their best to impose those principles upon their modern children and there is consequent unrest and unhappiness in these homes.

The upper class girls, ready to be graduated, have associated with boys all through their school years. They have worked and played side by side with them and their parents did not notice any untoward influence one had upon the other. But the time came when the dances attracted the girls and the boys. Afternoon dances, then the evening dances under the supervision of the school. The girls wanted to go with the boys and the parents were frightened. Girls did not do that twenty-five years or so ago. That could not be done.

"No, no, Marie. You cannot go to a dance with a boy. Well, if your brother will go along with you I'll let you go this time."

"Who? Me? Why should I have to tag along with her? Let her go along with George or stay home. I'm not going."

By and by, after much coaxing and persuasion and bribing, brother consents to go along. The dance does not begin until half after nine, the band does not play Home Sweet Home until twelve thirty, and the girl, her escort and her brother do not reach home until after one. Father is incensed and shouts, "Never again."

I want to make a plea for the happiness as well as the safety of this young girl. How much thought have her parents given the situation? For instance, how did father and mother come to know each other and to become the parents of this girl? Somebody trusted somebody, that is certain. How much training for personal responsibility have the parents given this girl? Is she not responsible for her behavior? When is she going to be? What sort of associates does she have? Are they dangerous or are they just as well trained, just as intelligent and just as responsible as the girl herself?

It is well to safeguard children, but there is a limit to safety in this world. Shutting girls up in the house, forbidding them the normal playtimes, the normal associations with boys, only makes their situation dangerous. The normal interest in boys becomes heightened, the acceptance of social restrictions are broken down in an effort to escape such social development as this interest in boys discloses than to try to smother it by prohibitions.

Know your children. Know the children they associate with. Prepare them for personal responsibility, and then hope for the best. Mr. Patri will give personal attention to inquiries from parents and school teachers on the care and development of children. Write him in care of this paper, enclosing a three cent stamped, self-addressed envelope for reply.

Little Benny's
Note Book

After supper pop was smoking and thinking and ma was just thinking, saying, Are you good at making up slogans, Willyum?

I had quite a reputation at one time, pop said. For instance I composed a slogan for a chewing gum to be sold on trains, called Choo Choo Chew, and my slogan for it was Choo Choo Choo Chew, but unfortunately there didn't seem to be any chewing gum of that name and my slogan wouldn't stick any other gum, so there I was stuck with a slogan and no place to put it, he said, and ma said, Well I have a chance to win a brand new Bickelcar if I sent in the winning slogan to the Fluffed Oatsies hour before a certain date whenever it is.

That's wonderful, it's just one more instant of the bewty of living in a democracy, because a million other claimants will have exactly the same chance, pop said, and ma said, Yes, wouldn't it be marvelous? The slogan I've thawt of is, The Car of the Future, so Why Not the Present? The only obstacle is, it seems to have a slightly reminiscent sound reminding you of other similar slogans and that mite be a drawback, so that's why I thawt you mite help me put the same idea in a little different form to make it more novel, she said.

Well, you mite change it to, The Car of the Past Unless a Flock of Pokes Visit Our Salesrooms, pop said, By golly that's a good idea, appeal to peoples generosity and love for the under dog, he said, and ma said, That's nonsense and you know it. On the other hand, The Car of the Future So Why not the Present would really make people stop and think I mean they'd stop and think, Well, if I'm going to buy a Bickelcar sooner or later, why not kill 2 birds at one swoop and buy it in advance? she said.

All rite, why not change it to Sooner or Later, So Why not Much Sooner? pop said, and ma said, Now Willyum that's a really constructive idea, I believe I will.

There's no charge, always glad to be of service, pop said.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

FIRMATIVE NEGATION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The osevelt reorganizers here have on loath to say it, but they all pect they will have to battle a m movement within the next r or so.

The President, for example, was ed before he left whether he eed share the blame for the evelty backed the question, with a factious advice that the qesner should "ask some stock exange house".

But no firmer official announce-ent of the expectations could e been conceived than the neg-ive one made a few days later Governor Eccles of Federal re-e. He said his board was sidering a further increase of ervice requirements. Well-in-red news accounts simultane-ly announced the increase would bably be made right after the rismas holidays.

As there would be no reason for reasing reserve requirements ss Governor Eccles is antici-ging a boom-like demand for e credit, he seemed to say kwards what President Roost- and his other reorganizers e declined to state frontwards, the simple truth is everyone nts what is coming and Eccles hoping to be able to handle it taking a few wise credit stis- in time.

As the state department move to the embassy out of Madrid was sially ascribed to lack of faith the aim of rebel aviators, the rebels have repeatedly prom-ised they would not bomb the lomatic zone in Madrid, but re is something about the Latin ights which discourages con-ance of everyone within range. is an old Spanish custom to ot at one thing and hit an-er.

Of course, evacuation of the passy will also make the switch recognition from the Loyalists to the Rebels very smooth, pleasan- and socially correct. By mov-ing our diplomats out of gun range, the state department is also moving them out of the Loy-alist camp. After the rebels take the capital our boys can be ead back in again, without seem-ing to be falling on General Franco's neck.

Of course, the department nevah nevah thought of that.

EARLY BIRDS—

Squads of new freshman congressmen who matriculated in the last election have been wander-ing through capital corridors the last few days. They have hast-ened to look over their new jobs before the official count of the ballots is completed. Other fresh-men who have not yet arrived are said to have gone off on vacations away from home.

An owl senator explained the migration.

"The fellows who won the primaries this year were the ones who made the most promises," he said. "Now they are elected, they are just trying to get away from those they promised."

HATCHET BURIAL—Treasury Secretary Morgenthau has announced he will not object to Congress continuing the RFC—for another year. The announce-ment was made a few days after that news was told in this spot that Mr. Morgenthau had a hawk-ering to abolish the RFC as well as its chairman, Mr. Jesse Jones, and absorb the former, but not the latter, in his own well-run treasury department.

What it means is that Mr. Morgenthau has suppressed his hank-ering by request from higher up. The hatchets unsheathed by Mes-srs. Morgenthau and Jones are now to be buried, but not so deeply that they cannot be dug up next year, when Mr. Morgan-thau will make another, and prob-ably a more successful, effort to handle the liquidation of the RFC. Mr. Morgenthau speaks only ex-cathedra, or, at any rate, only after hearing from cathedra across the street in the White House.

Consequently, you may look for-ward to the following two develop-ments, just as surely as if Mr. Roosevelt himself had made the announcement instead of Mr. Morgenthau:

(a) The RFC will be continued another year.

(b) The President's monetary powers will be renewed for two or three years.

DIPLOMATIC SHAKE-UP?

Don't go too strong on the as-sumption that Joe Davies will be ambassador to Russia for any great length of time. Mr. Davies was slated for a bigger diplomatic post, and still is. However, Mos-cow was the only one open at the moment.

There has been some talk of making him undersecretary of state, but Mr. Roosevelt is said to believe a career man should have that job. He was also candi-date for the Paris ambassador-ship at the time Bill Baillitt got it. A reorganization in the diplo-matic corps after inauguration may yet bring him to Paris.

Several things are said to have caused the recent soaring of Dav-ies' stock on the White House ex-change. He is supposed to have worked the old Republican squeeze play upon well-to-do Democratic office-holders for campaign con-tributions. Some say he turned over a neat $100,000 to Farley by merely inviting office-holders who could afford it to contribute one year's salary to the campaign fund. Also, he is said to have originated one of those $1 cam-paign clubs, thus demonstrating his versatility in collecting from rich and poor alike.

This makes his appointment to Moscow wholly appropriate, as there is the matter of the czarist debt still pending there.
